REBEL CHIEFTAIN IN SADDLE SEVEN DAYS

Hospital Trains Unable to Care for Wounded, Water
Is Poisoned by Retreating
Federals and Suffering
From Hunger Is Intense.

JUAREZ, Mexico, March 31.—At noon a single line stating that fighting continued at Torreon was received by rebel officials here. A rumor that an armistice had been agreed on was denied.

By JOHN J. LEED.
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

TORREON, Mexico, March 31.—The battle of Gomez Balcon, the fiercest fought in the three years of revolutions, lasted five days. On Sunday, March 22, there was a general advance from Benito. With an armored train with cannon on a flat car in the center, the army spread out in long wings of cavalry, riding abreast.

A flanking column, under Gen. Benavides, attacked the rebels and killed 100 Federals. They then attacked the rebels on the roofs of houses, threw bombs, which refused to explode, and the rebels threw them back, killing more than 200. Three hundred Federals were killed. Three Federal provision trains were captured and the railroad was torn up.

Fifty-five kilometers out of Gomez Balcon, the railroad having been destroyed, the Federal train was stopped about dark. The rebels, evidently, expected the army to stick by the train. But they did not reckon with Villa. About dark Villa led his army upon the town. He had been in the saddle since 5 o'clock in the morning and had been riding for seven days.

Looked Food and Water.
The troops were without food and the artillery was miles behind. The men rode through the streets at a gallop. Thousands of them were under terrible shrapnel fire. They captured the roundhouse and water tank, but were halted at the Brittingham car with its adobe wall, containing 100 men and protected by four machine guns.

Villa's men held to their positions all night, but were driven out at dawn by the entire Federal force from Torreon. Their losses were heavy. The rebel artillery arrived at daybreak, but most of the homemade shrapnel failed to ignite, only one out of 24 exploding.

The machine gunners were held while the Federal artillery from Cerro del Pilar did terrific execution. Villa's army fought from an unprotected flat plain with irrigation ditches running through the cotton fields.

The Federal artillery in Barrio San Ignacio and Cerro del Pilar, a sharp, steep, rocky hill 50 feet high, halted all attempts to capture them. A second assault was made at 10 o'clock Monday morning. One thousand infantry charged the roundhouse again, but were repulsed. The cavalry also was driven back.

Rebels Are Frenzied-Stricken.
The rebels, seized with panic, fled through the brush and over the plain, the men shouting, "They're coming, compañeros! Run for your lives!" But the Federalists did not pursue and the men were halted at Elverdel. Worn out with the strain, the soldiers, weeping, fell and slept.

The Federalists poisoned the irrigation ditches and many wrappings of cyanide packages were found. The horses and hundreds of men were stricken. Some of them died.

The provision and hospital trains had been delayed and the wounded were straggling in the hot sun, many dying on the way. There was no food. The night was cold and few had blankets. Hundreds of women camp followers were crying for their men.

On Tuesday the wreck of Benavides' troops, from the battle of Sacramento, with Gen. Maximo Garcia, together with the mortally wounded, and Col. Trinidad Rodriguez, also arrived. The ragged troops of Urtina, Contreras and Robles, from the south, armed with old Springfield rifles, also arrived. They were without blankets or shoes.

Battle of Armored Trains.
About three thousand new men came in, making Villa's force about 12,000. After another night of exhaustion, accompanied by cannon fire, the rebel armored train moved out Wednesday and the Federal armored train sallied out to meet it. Cannon shots were exchanged, the rebels destroyed the Federal train. There was heavy cannonading all day on both sides at Gomez, and at Polanco. At dark, the rebel troops dismounted, were armed with hand bombs of dynamite, wrapped in cyanide, and again stormed the town. They were met by shrapnel and machine gun fire.

The ragged troops of Urtina, Contreras and Robles were in the van, Villa himself leading. Five times they assaulted the town, but every time they climbed the mountain against the artillery and machine-gun fire. Her-

SUFFRAGE SPEAKER IN AUTO HECKLED BY JOBLESS MEN

Mrs. Alice Curtice Moyer Speaks to Crowd in Front of Courthouse Until Remarks of Auditors "Get On" Her Nerves.

Mrs. Alice Curtice Moyer of 6002 Maple avenue, secretary of the St. Louis Equal Suffrage League, in its publicity campaign Tuesday, at the noon hour, attempted to make a speech in front of the Broadway entrance to the courthouse. She was in an auto with Mrs. George Gellhorn of 4205 McPherson avenue, wife of Dr. George Gellhorn.

A crowd of several hundred men wedged about the machine. Listen, among them many of those idle who make the courthouse steps a resting place.

"I am glad to see so many men here, for in next November you are going to have the opportunity to say whether or not we women get the vote," she said, as she stood up in the machine.

"You don't get it if I have any say-so, sister," one man called out. Without seeming to notice the interruption, Mrs. Moyer continued: "We women are human beings, just as you men are. We need your support in this matter, just as at times you need us."

"Say, who's watchin' the kids while you are out?" a man on the edge of the crowd asked.

"Fair play," someone called. "She's a woman; give her a chance to speak."

"You can't outtalk a woman, anyhow," another adviser called.

By J. J. LEED.
"We women need the vote, and we want you to give it to us, for we know that the time is ripe in Missouri for equal suffrage," she continued. Then came another interruption from the edge of the crowd from a youth with a piping voice.

"The time may be ripe, but it ain't 'Apple-blossom time in Normandy,' lady," the lad said. "You'd better go home and tend to the kids, and cook dinner for them."

Mrs. Moyer did not seem to notice this interruption, and continued to talk for fully 10 minutes, when suddenly the crowd grew rougher and much hissing and cat-calling was heard.

"By the way that some of you men treat me it is hard to believe that you ever had mothers," the speaker said.

"Go on, go on, we'll listen. We'll make 'em shut up," a man called out, while others laughed.

"No, you don't want me to speak, so I shall shut down," she said, and did so. Several of the men near her raised their hats. A man giving his name as John Reed of Wyoming came to the edge of the car, and said:

"I see that you do not care to have me talk any more, so I shall not continue," Mrs. Moyer replied.

"Go on, go on, we'll listen. We'll make 'em shut up," a man called out, while others laughed.

"No, you don't want me to speak, so I shall shut down," she said, and did so. Several of the men near her raised their hats. A man giving his name as John Reed of Wyoming came to the edge of the car, and said:

"I see that you do not care to have me talk any more, so I shall not continue," Mrs. Moyer replied.

"Go on, go on, we'll listen. We'll make 'em shut up," a man called out, while others laughed.

BAD SMELL IS TRACED TO EAST SIDE PACKERS

Civic League and Health Board
Discovers Why St. Louis
Holds Its Nose.

MEAT-MEN ARE AT HEARING

Despite Their Defense, Complaint May Be Made to Illinois Court.

Health Department sleuths and Civic League Sanitary Committeemen, without the use of dictagraphs or any other modern aids to Sherlock Holmes, have found the trail of the smell in St. Louis. They had no difficulty finding the smell, but they did find it a bit difficult to discover where the smell came from.

Constituting themselves as a jury before the Board of Health, Tuesday, they returned a verdict against the stockyards and packing plants in East St. Louis. It was agreed that most of the obnoxious odors wafted over the city are blown across the river from the east, although several St. Louis packing and fertilizer plants, as well as city garbage wagons, were censured.

Court Hearing Suggested.
Health Commissioner Starkloff and his assistant, Dr. G. A. Jordan, also agreed East St. Louis is the greatest offender. Consequently Starkloff announced he would ask City Counselor Baird for an opinion on what procedure, if any, may be taken to force the East Side packing plants and stockyards to eradicate odors. It had been suggested the matter be taken up with the Illinois courts as a public health measure.

The Board of Health met to consider the small question at the request of the Civic League, which was represented by Roscoe Baldwin, secretary, and Dr. R. Emmet Kane, 1117 North Grand avenue. Representatives of packing and fertilizer companies at the meeting were: Charles Urquhart, St. Louis Dressed Beef Co.; Gustav Bloch Jr., Independent Packing Co.; W. Herling, Carondelet Packing Co.; Henry Sartorius, Sartorius Packing Co.; J. H. Beis, Beis Provision Co.; George L. Hell, Hell Packing Co.; Frederick Krey, Krey Packing Co.; Matthew Cutney, West End Provision Co.; Frederick Meyer, Meyer Fertilizer Co.; Edward J. Cassilly, Matthias Mfg. Co.; and D. H. Steiglers, St. Louis Hides and Tallow Co.

Packers Tell Their Side.
The packers had been called in to add expert testimony on the trail of the smell and to suggest what remedial measures might be taken to insure less odor in St. Louis this summer than in previous years.

Baldwin said the Civic League had received complaints about odors from all parts of St. Louis, some of which were so vehement they could not be passed in public. He said the Civic League was not in a hostile mood, but wanted to co-operate with the packers in eradicating odors which, he said, are most offensive at night.

Baldwin said W. R. Cooke, chief sanitary officer, had tested the major offender to its lair in East St. Louis, and found no effort was made there to prevent the odors from spreading. Exhausts are left open, he said, permitting the odors to be blown in any direction with the wind.

WILD DEER IS CAPTURED NEAR MERAMEC HIGHLANDS

Animal Becomes Entangled in Wire Fence on Farm Owned by Judge Kehr.

A full grown buck was found Tuesday at 7:30 a. m. by Albert Kleubusch, entangled in a barbed wire fence on the farm of Harry Blanner at a point over the east tunnel of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, north of Meramec Highlands. The deer was not injured, beyond a few scratches, but was so enmeshed in the wire that it was held a prisoner.

Kleubusch, who is about 30 years old, was unable to handle the buck alone and summoned Blanner. They tied the deer's feet and after getting the wire got the animal to an empty granary. It was so wild that it was necessary to tie its head and body to the ceiling with ropes so that it would not injure itself.

Blanner expressed the belief that the deer, escaped from a preserve and strayed to his farm.

Blanner is a tenant of Judge Kehr, who is joint owner of the property with his sister, Mrs. Methudy, mother of the late Senator Adolph Methudy.

$5 "CONSCIENCE MONEY" SENT TO POST-DISPATCH

A $5 bill, accompanied by a note which showed it to be "conscience money," was received by the Post-Dispatch in Tuesday's mail. The letter was mailed in St. Louis Monday, and the message was:

"Enclosed find $5 for 50 Sunday morning papers stolen from in front of your branch on Market, near Tenth or Eleventh, about 20 years ago. Yours in peace."

Such a theft is not recollected by anyone now in the circulation department of the Post-Dispatch.

A Lenten religious revival is being carried on at present by a large number of St. Louis churches. It has heretofore been noticed that such revivals stimulate the payment of "conscience money" to railroads and business houses by anonymous, but conscientious, persons.

TENNESSEE MAYOR AND COUSIN HELD AS BANK ROBBERS

W. B. Brown and H. R. Jackson of Gallatin Arrested on Federal Warrants; Bond $5000.

$30,000 SHORTAGE FOUND

Discovery of Loss Made Following Fire in Vault That Destroyed Valuable Papers.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 31.—William B. Brown, mayor and cashier of the First National Bank of Gallatin, Tenn., and his assistant and cousin, Herbert B. Jackson, are under arrest here on Federal indictments charging them with being responsible for the disappearance of $30,000 of the bank's funds. Efforts are being made to obtain bond for the two men. Jackson, who had done much work on the books is held on a conspiracy charge. His bond was fixed at $5000.

Inquiry Started March 30.
The arrests are the result of an inquiry which has been in progress since March 20, when the bank building was found to be on fire and it later was reported that $30,000 was missing.

An undertaker, who was returning home early in the morning, saw smoke issuing from the bank building and gave the alarm. The fire was put out quickly, after it was found to be among the books and records of the institution in the vault.

After the first report of the robbery, details of the bank refused to permit anyone to approach the vault and they hastily summoned an expert from the factory where the locks had been manufactured.

The governor offered a reward of $500 for the capture of the supposed burglars, but it subsequently was hinted that the work was not that of burglars, but had been done by someone who is familiar with the interior of the bank building.

Safe Expert Confirms Suspicion.
The examination by the safe expert is said to have confirmed suspicions previously entertained that instead of explosives being used to open the strongbox, the combination had been worked. The safe was of a type which was considered proof against burglars.

Officials of the bank declined to make any statements, but it became known that investigations following the fire revealed that many of the records had been destroyed.

What facts the bank officials had were laid before the United States grand jury, recently, with the result that indictments were returned and arrests followed yesterday.

300 TONS OF ARMS SMUGGLED TO IRELAND

Danish Authorities Place Embargo on Vessels, but They Ship Aboard at Night.

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, March 31.—A mysterious cargo of 300 tons of rifles, supposed to be intended for Ireland, disappeared from the vicinity of the Danish island of Langeland, last night, after an embargo had been placed on it by the authorities.

The rifles were brought to Langeland from Hamburg on a lighter which arrived in the island. A short time afterward, the Norwegian steamer, Fanny, came alongside and took "her arms on board." The Danish authorities then came onto the scene. The two vessels vanished during the night.

Mrs. Henry Siegel, Formerly of St. Louis, to Seek a Divorce Husband Now Bankrupt Merchant

After Her Marriage to Her
Employer, a New York
Department Store Prince,
She Made a Brilliant Social
Flight, and One of Her Daughters Married a Count.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 31.—As the climax to a social career which began three years after her marriage, on April 24, 1888, and continued, partly in this country, but particularly in London and Paris, almost continuously until 1912, during which time she spent great sums of money, Mrs. Marie Vaughn Siegel, wife of Henry Siegel, has prepared a petition in a suit for divorce. Mrs. Siegel was the widow of George M. Wilde, a St. Louis broker, when she married Siegel, whose big dry goods stores here and in Boston recently failed.

The date of the actual filing of the suit, counsel for Mrs. Siegel explained, depended on process servers finding Siegel. They hunted for him all forenoon in vain.

Mrs. Siegel's suit is expected to develop some interesting legal points. Sie and Siegel have been separated four years, or since she went abroad to live with her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Wilde. At the time of the separation an agreement was made by which Siegel was to pay his wife $25,000 a year for living expenses.

It is said that Mrs. Siegel will maintain that she is legally entitled to this yearly amount; that it comes before Siegel's other debts, which run into the millions, and that her agreement has prior claim on his assets.

Complains of a "Miss Smith."
In her complaint Mrs. Siegel declares that on information and belief, Siegel began attentions to a "Miss Smith" in November, 1910, and that these relations have continued until March 30, 1914. She says that Siegel entertained this Miss Smith in the Hotel Nederland in this city and at his country estate, Driftwood, near Mamaroneck. It is alleged that the then wealthy merchant introduced Miss Smith as a trained nurse.

Miss Smith, however, the complaint reads, is not the only woman to share Siegel's attentions, according to Mrs. Siegel's belief and information. The complaint alleges that about the time Miss Smith came into Siegel's life, a Mrs. Eddy, whose address is believed to be Dorchester, Mass., began accepting his attentions and that she has continued to accept them until March 30, 1914.

When the case comes up for trial, or probably during the scramble for assets by Siegel's many creditors, it is expected that Mrs. Siegel will put in her claim for the $25,000 a year.

Newspaper Fashion Writer.
Mrs. Siegel, or Mrs. Wilde, as she was then, came to New York in 1894 with her two daughters, Misses Georgine and Dorothy. They came from Virginia, where the family had more of a name than assets, and Mrs. Siegel became a reporter on the New York Press. Her duties were to write fashion articles. On one occasion she was assigned to

CLARK, IN ATTACK ON TOLLS REPEAL, PRAISES PRESIDENT

Speaker Declares He Never Criticized Executive's Motives, but Calls His Request "Amazing" and Says
He Is Wrong; Denies Charge That He Is Trying to Wreck Party.

DOES NOT SEEK 1916 NOMINATION, HE SAYS

Denounces Press, Which He
Accuses of Slandering
Him; Disclaims Personal
Issue and Proposes Suspension of Exemption
Clause for Two Years.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Speaker Clark, closing the debate against the repeal of the tolls exemption clause of the Panama Canal act, disappointed those who expected him to attack President Wilson. He disclaimed any personal issue with the President, declared he believed President Wilson was actuated by the highest patriotic motives, and that there was no breach in the Democratic party. He argued at length against the President's contention and declared that "the amazing request of the President for the repeal, like the peace of God, passeth all understanding."

He disclaimed any personal issue between the President and himself and added that if the President had reasons, which are not utterly untenable, and which compel him to make "this request," he had not given them to the House.

World Suspended Exemption.
He differed from the President's statement that toll exemption was "a mistaken economic policy," but admitting dispute on that point, proposed that the exemption be suspended two years. He contended that the President was mistaken in the view that the exemption was repugnant to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

"We want war with no nation," said the Speaker, "but rather than surrender our right to complete sovereignty over every square foot of our globe-encompassing domain, we will cheerfully and courageously face a world in arms."

In suggesting a two-year suspension of tolls, Speaker Clark said: "Most assuredly the mistaken economic policy" reasons for the President is untenable and fades away before the stubborn facts of our history. As that is a disputed point, why not amend this bill so as to continue the present law with the exemption section for two years or suspend it for two years?"

"By amending the bill either way we control the situation. If the exemption from tolls should turn out to be a 'mistaken economic policy,' we can suspend or modify it; but if we pass this repeal bill, control over our own canal, built on our own soil, with our own money, is gone from us and our heirs forever and forever."

He attacked the attitude of House Democrats who have led the President's fight for the toll exemption repeal. Referring to published declarations that his opposition to the President was "the opening gun of his fight for the nomination in 1916," the Speaker declared he had told all to whom he had spoken about the 1916 situation that if the President's administration were a success, Mr. Wilson would be re-elected and it would be a failure. The nomination would not be worth having.

Denies a Personal Issue.
As to his own future, the Speaker insisted he could be happy without the presidency, the speakership or even with retirement to private life, should his constituency so determine.

"There is no personal issue between the President of the United States and myself," he said. "I trust there never will be. I have at no time uttered or word of criticism of the President. At no time, so far as I am informed or believe, has the President said one single word of criticism of me. I have never for one moment entertained the opinion that President Wilson is actuated by other than the highest motives."

"I do not believe that President Wilson has ever entertained any other opinion as to the conduct of those of us who find it necessary to differ with him on this measure. President Wilson does not desire a breach in the Democratic party. I do not desire a breach in the Democratic party."

Denounces "the Jackal Press."
"I would scorn to believe that President Wilson countenances for one moment the efforts of some of the 'jackal press' to represent that we are seeking to disrupt the Democratic party. With most of those who have asserted that I am seeking to disrupt the party, the wish is father to the thought."

Replying at length to what he called a "scurrilous and slanderous article in the New York World," the Speaker said the charge that he had "been swayed in his attitude toward the bill by the 'ship subsidy interests'" was a "base and false insinuation."

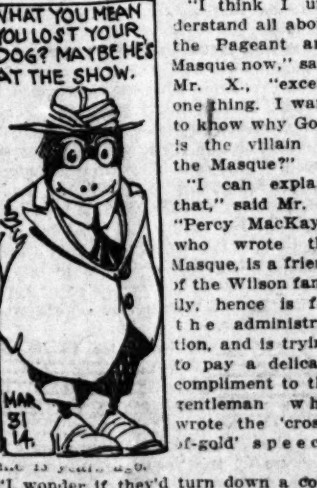

"If any man here believes that Speaker," shouted the Speaker, "let him stand up here and say, so that he may be seen by hundreds of witnesses."

The newspaper he named, he said, "along with every editor in America, who hopes to be an Ambassador, Minister, Consul-General, or in some other fat and juicy job, has been endeavoring to place me in antagonism to the President ever since the election.

Says He Is Not a Candidate.

"These papers declare I am opposing this surrender to Great Britain as an opening gun in my campaign for President in 1916. It may surprise these obsequious courtiers to know that I have never hinted to any human being that I would be a candidate in 1916, and that I am not a candidate. Their slander has been a gratuitous mental degradation."

"I never entertained the slightest ill will toward the President about the Baltimore convention. I wish him well. I did all I could to elect him, far more than some of those who so vociferously and fulsomely praise him now, and for whom, deep down in his heart he must entertain supreme contempt. I have steadfastly supported him until we are called upon to bolt the platform. I absolutely refuse to do any such thing."

Refers to Possible Retirement.

Speaker Clark then referred to published reports of a fight on his re-election to the speakership.

"The New York Sun practically nominates the gentleman from Kentucky, (Mr. Sherley), for Speaker," said he. "Here is its exact language:

"Reports have it that already the little leaders have decided that Representative Carter Glass of Virginia would be a good man for floor leader and that Representative Swager Sherley of Kentucky would make an ideal Speaker."

"The strange part of that paragraph is that it makes no mention of my volubility, vehement and vociferous friend from Texas (Mr. Henry), for the speakership. He has had his eagle one on the speakership for so, these many years."

"I have this to say: The fact that I am making this fight for our platform pledges may end my public career."

Says He Won't Repudiate Platform.

"There are many things worse than being defeated for Congress, or defeated for the speakership, or even worse than to be defeated for the presidency, and one of them is to repudiate the platform on which you are elected."

"If my constituents, who have stood by me with unshaken fidelity, should advise me to private life, I will be happy in the love and affection of my wife and children, in the society of my books, and in cultivating flowers and trees."

"Asserting that he had no criticism for this Democratic friends who would support the repeal, the Speaker pleaded that if we must differ, let us differ in kindness," and then launched into an argument on the merits of the toll issue.

He contended, first, that the trans-continental railroads would be the chief beneficiaries of a repeal.

Says President Is Wrong.

Further referring to President Wilson's attitude, Speaker Clark said: "If we have entered into an agreement which forbids us to manage our own affairs, then we must abide by it, however foolish or unnecessary that engagement may have been."

"Honest opinion," he said, differed. "Whatever may be the differences of opinion respecting the merits of the case," he said, "I do President Wilson honor for his act. But I do not and cannot endorse his judgment. I think he is wholly in the wrong; at least so far as the treaty bears upon our own domestic situation and consequently of force so just cause for the breaking of a well-considered party pledge."

"The repeal," he said, "means the practical abandonment of the Monroe Doctrine, which the American people will maintain at all hazards. Those who assert that the Monroe Doctrine is dead reckon without their heads."

Speaker Makes Final Appeal.

After discussing the Monroe Doctrine, the Speaker concluded with this appeal: "Now, may the God of our fathers, who served 3,000,000 backwoods Americans to fling their sage of battle into the face of the mightiest monarch in the world, who guided the hand of Jefferson in writing the charter of liberty, who sustained Washington and his ragged and starving army amid the awful horrors of Valley Forge, and who gave them complete victory on the blood-stained heights of Yorktown, may He lead members to vote so as to prevent this stupendous folly—the unexampled humiliation of the American Republic."

gers had attacked and taken the town of Lerdo, but the main attack on Gomez again was repulsed.

Hundreds of men were sacrificed. Of these were killed and the soldiers stormed the town, leaving a trail of blood. They fought bravely all night, but before dawn, retreated in a panic, again to be halted by a line of officers with drawn revolvers. Villa was dashing about on horseback like a crazy man, shouting:

"We must take it! We must drive the cañones out of that hill!"

Drinking Water Is Polluted.

Wednesday morning was cold and cloudy. The roads and paths were filled with the dead, wounded and the sleeping. The cannonading had stopped. The sun shone, and the wind from Gomez Palace carried the stench from the dead. The water in the ditch was polluted. Provisions and hospital trains arrived. Trainloads of the wounded were sent to Jimenez and Parral.

Starving farmers who had been looted by the Federalists clamored for food. Villa ordered all fed. He carried many wounded men to the hospital.

On Thursday night Villa planned a final assault on the mountain. After dark the feverish, emaciated men lay in the ditch waiting for the beginning of the attack with hand guns.

They sang in low voices, and shed. Bonfires were started by the soldiers (women). Advance was made at midnight. The Federalists fired volleys. The rebels, fearing an attack, went cautiously. When they reached the town they found it had been evacuated. The Federalists retreated to Torreon. Several wounded men who had remained behind to look for battle in the darkness. All of them were slain.

Then the rebels began cutting and setting fire to the town. Chiff saw there were thousands of drunken looters and flames.

Slain Teacher and New York School Over Which She Presided

Miss LIDA BEECHER.

Father Begins Fight to Save Youth Accused of Beating Teacher to Death.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., March 31.—Charles Gianni has begun a legal fight to save his son, Jean, from the electric chair for the murder of Miss Lydia Beecher, the young Poland (N. Y.) school teacher, whose body was found in the woods near that town last Saturday.

The funeral of Miss Beecher was held this morning from the family home, the Presbyterian Church parsonage in Seneca.

An alleged confession by the boy, who was a pupil of Miss Beecher, was placed before the grand jury yesterday by District Attorney Farrell. While the text of this document has not been made public, its contents were given out by the prosecutor.

The boy's father declared the boy was mentally ill, and had been engaged as counsel for the boy's defense Joseph A. Shay, who was one of the attorneys for Charles Becker, the former New York City Police Lieutenant, awaiting a second trial for the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal.

to her social prestige before this much-talked-of and much-published event, there never was again so long as Mrs. Siegel cared to mingle with English nobility and the elite outside the royal families.

She was not neglecting the social standing of her stepdaughter, Miss Julie, and her own daughters during this campaign. Miss Julie became the wife of Tyrrell William Cavendish, a relative of the Duke of Devonshire, and in 1906 Miss Georgine Wilde was married to Count Carlo D'Este de Fraxto, an Italian nobleman, with large estates at San Bando and at Krasna, Moravia.

The marriage took place at Brampton, Oratory, outside London, and was performed by the Rev. Father Bernard Vaughan.

Even in selecting the priest for the marriage ceremony, Mrs. Siegel was careful to choose one close to the royal family. Father Vaughan had gained much prominence, because King Edward had selected him to instruct Princess Ena in Catholicism preparatory to her marriage to King Alfonso of Spain.

Debut Amid Splendor.

In 1908 Mrs. Siegel spent part of the season in New York, when her daughter, Miss Dorothy Wilde, now 26 years old, made her debut amid much splendor. Following the coming-out party there were more entertainments in New York. Then back to London went Mrs. Siegel and later to Paris. In Paris that year she entertained Prince Ghika, whose family were pretenders to the Serbian throne.

The following year—1912—was Mrs. Siegel's banner year in a social way. First she entertained in her elaborate apartments in the Avenue Malakoff in Paris the Infanta Beatrice of Spain. Then came the Countess Esterhazy from Austria to be her guest, and following her the Princess Hohenlohe journeyed from Germany to be entertained by the lavish American spender.

Social Paris was bowing low to Mrs. Siegel by this time. She was at the very zenith. Another of her guests was the Princess Zuro, and not satisfied with all she had done for royalty, she gave elaborate entertainments at Bois de Boulogne Club.

At last the bank roll disappeared.

DEBATE ON TOLLS IS CLOSING; HOUSE MAY VOTE TONIGHT

Great Crowd of Spectators Packs Galleries as Representatives Begin Final Arguments.

HUMPHREY PRAISES CLARK

Republican Says Missourian Should Have Been President; Speaker Opposes Repeal.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—In an atmosphere of tense excitement, the struggle in the House over President Wilson's proposal to repeal the Panama tolls exemption was today pressed to its last stage.

A full attendance on the floor and a throng of anxious spectators such as the House has seldom seen in the galleries, waited for the concluding verbal battle and the deciding vote which was expected late this afternoon or early tonight.

On the program for speeches were Speaker Champ Clark, Republican Leader Mann, both opposed to the President, and Representative Sherley Covington for the administration.

Leaders Working feverishly.

Leaders on both sides worked feverishly on the floor and in the cloak rooms, and the whips reported several changes in the lineup, although the changes generally balanced. Administration supporters confidently claimed the repeal bill would pass by a majority of from 60 to 75.

Cheers and applause greeted the opening of the day's debate. When Representative Humphrey, Republican of Washington, declared that "but for an injustice, the great and patriotic Speaker of this House would today be occupying the White House," the galleries joined the floor in a round of applause.

Three Locked in Galleries.

Just after dark, when janitors were cleaning up the galleries, they were amazed to find two women and a man seated for a long wait until noon.

"You'll have to get out of here now," they said, "or we will have to lock you in." Until the galleries are regularly opened at 10 o'clock.

"Look us in," said the waiting ones, and locked in they were, and had their places of vantage when the doors were opened.

During the waiting hours the crowd made itself at home. Some brought newspapers and books. One gray-haired woman brought her knitting and clicked her needles industriously.

Lunch Boxes Imperil Legislators.

Lunch boxes and baskets of hot bottles were piled up on the gallery rail, an imminent danger to the legislators below, until the doorkeepers forced their removal.

Representative Humphrey of Washington, Republican, who had denounced the Democratic position as "more contemptible than the English language can express," and declared the condition had been brought about by the "egotistical blundering" of the administration.

He lauded Majority Leader Underwood and Speaker Clark, who he said, "by every rule of fairness and honor should be President today," for refusing to repudiate the Democratic platform.

The administration, Representative Humphrey declared, had been imposed upon "to carry out the international confidence game by which Japan and England hope to secure the use of the canal without compensation."

Keating Favors Repeal.

Representative Keating, Democrat, and Representative Thomas, Democrat, favored the bill. So did Representative Clayton, Democrat of Texas.

Representative Kent of California, Independent, agreed with the President that exemption was a subsidy.

Representative Copley of Illinois, Progressive and Cooper of Wisconsin, Republican, spoke for repeal. Representative Powers, Republican, of Kentucky, spoke against it.

Representative Alney of Pennsylvania, Republican, assailed what he called the efforts of the President to "usurp the functions of the legislative branch of the Government."

While Alney spoke, in the Speaker's gallery where Mrs. Clark and Miss Genevieve Clark and a party of friends were seated, a large lunchbox, generously loaded with sandwiches and fruit, was produced and passed around.

Various members were given a minute each to extend their remarks in the record and the remaining Republican time was then given to Representative Mann.

Mann Attacks Repeal Bill.

Republican Leader Mann told the House three questions were involved in a repeal of the tolls exemption: treaty rights, moral rights apart from treaty construction and the economic policy involved. The economic question might be changed at any time, he said, but a decision on treaty rights must be a lasting one. He maintained that no construction of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty compelled the United States to charge the same tolls on its own ships or those of Panama as were levied on those of other nations.

"A reading of the rules to be observed by nations to receive equal treatment," he said, "plainly discloses that they are not applicable to the United States or Panama."

"England's attempt to secure her control of the treaty at this time is not for its present effect. It is for the long-distant future. If we construe the treaty according to the English claims, it is sure to rise and embarrass us when we have war with other countries. War is not desirable, but it is inevitable. We cannot always maintain peace."

OFFERS TO GO TO PRISON TO PROTECT HUSBAND AND SON

Woman in Clayton Jail Author of Letter Found in Man's Room on His Arrest.

HE DENIES KNOWING HER

She Was Arrested Near a University City Home When a Robber Inside Escaped.

A letter in which May Waker, now a prisoner in the Clayton Jail, expresses willingness to take a four-year penitentiary sentence to protect her husband, for the sake of their 2-year-old boy, was found when the supposed husband, who gives his name as Frank H. Kent, was arrested Monday afternoon at the Belvedere Hotel, 1616 Locust street. May Waker was arrested while acting as lookout outside a house in University City. The man who was robbing the house escaped.

The expressions of devotion in the woman's letter had a pathetic sound, in view of the fact that the man, to protect whom she is sacrificing herself, was in the company of another woman when he was arrested. The other woman, who was held by the police for inquiry, says her name is Jean Howard, that she is one of a troupe of bicycle girls who have been doing an act in moving picture shows and that she met Kent last Saturday. She says he told her his wife had left him and entered a convent in Clayton.

Letter Found in His Room. May Waker's letter, written on yellow legal paper, was found in the man's room.

The man denied, at police headquarters, that he knew May Waker, but made no attempt to explain the letter. He also denied having told Jean Howard that his wife was in Clayton, but he admitted that he was married and had a young son, and he said the boy was with his grandparents.

In his pocket was found a paper containing written names and addresses, interspersed with newspaper clippings, forming a list of some thirty wealthy or prominent persons who are out of the city, or who have left their homes. Some of the entries were: "Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Peddle of 5355 Berlin avenue are in New York for two weeks." "Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Fove of 4335 McPherson avenue are in New Orleans." "Mrs. Halsey C. Ives has closed Redcroft, near the Lackland farm, and has gone to San Antonio."

Burglar's Tools Found. A memorandum was dropped by the burglar who escaped at the time of May Waker's arrest, outside in Harvard avenue, University City.

In Kent's room, the police also found a quantity of women's clothing, a flashlight and a burglar's tool, known to the police as a one-inch tooth jimmy. Marks of the use of such a tool were found by the police on the windows of the apartments at 3539 and 2639A Russell avenue, which were entered Feb. 24. Jewelry valued at $600 was taken from the occupants, Otto Hohnmann and E. W. Wallenbrock. A similar instrument was used, the police say, in entering E. H. Schopp's home, 5915 Washington avenue, where $500 worth of jewelry was taken.

Ben C. Jacoby of Webster Groves visited headquarters and identified a plush coat with yellow lining, a lace dress and lace cape, found in Kent's room, as the property of his wife. He took when their home was robbed two weeks ago. The county authorities will ask that Kent be turned over to them, but the police will hold him for further inquiry as to his acts in the city.

Bible Notation in Pocket. Memoranda taken from the man's pocket contained references to May Waker's case and clippings about it. One of the memoranda said that the continuance of her case until April 7 was "one point to the good," also that the case was before Judge McElhinney. A notation, "Ephesians V, 21, 22, 23," was found. This selection of Scripture is St. Paul's advice to wives to be submissive to their husbands.

The man would say nothing about these writings, or about his miniature social register. He said he was an electrician. From letters found in the room, the police believe his name is not Kent, and that his parents live in Oakland, Ky.

Girls Cause of Arrest. The arrest of the man and Jean Howard was caused by the attempt of two girls living in the Locust street hotel to flirt from the window, with passing employees of a shoe factory. Detectives Hunt and Warner saw one of the girls beckon to a man and went inside to investigate.

They found the girls in Kent's room, and seeing the expensive articles of clothing in the room, they arrested Kent and the women and started an investigation. The two other girls told the detectives they had bought articles of finery from Kent.

INCOME FROM CHICAGO FAIR FUND PUT TO WORK

CHICAGO, March 21.—Disposition of the $100,000 fund derived from the sale of souvenir spoons and Isabella quarters during the World's Fair here was announced by the committee of women, appointed by Mrs. Potter Palmer to pass on the question.

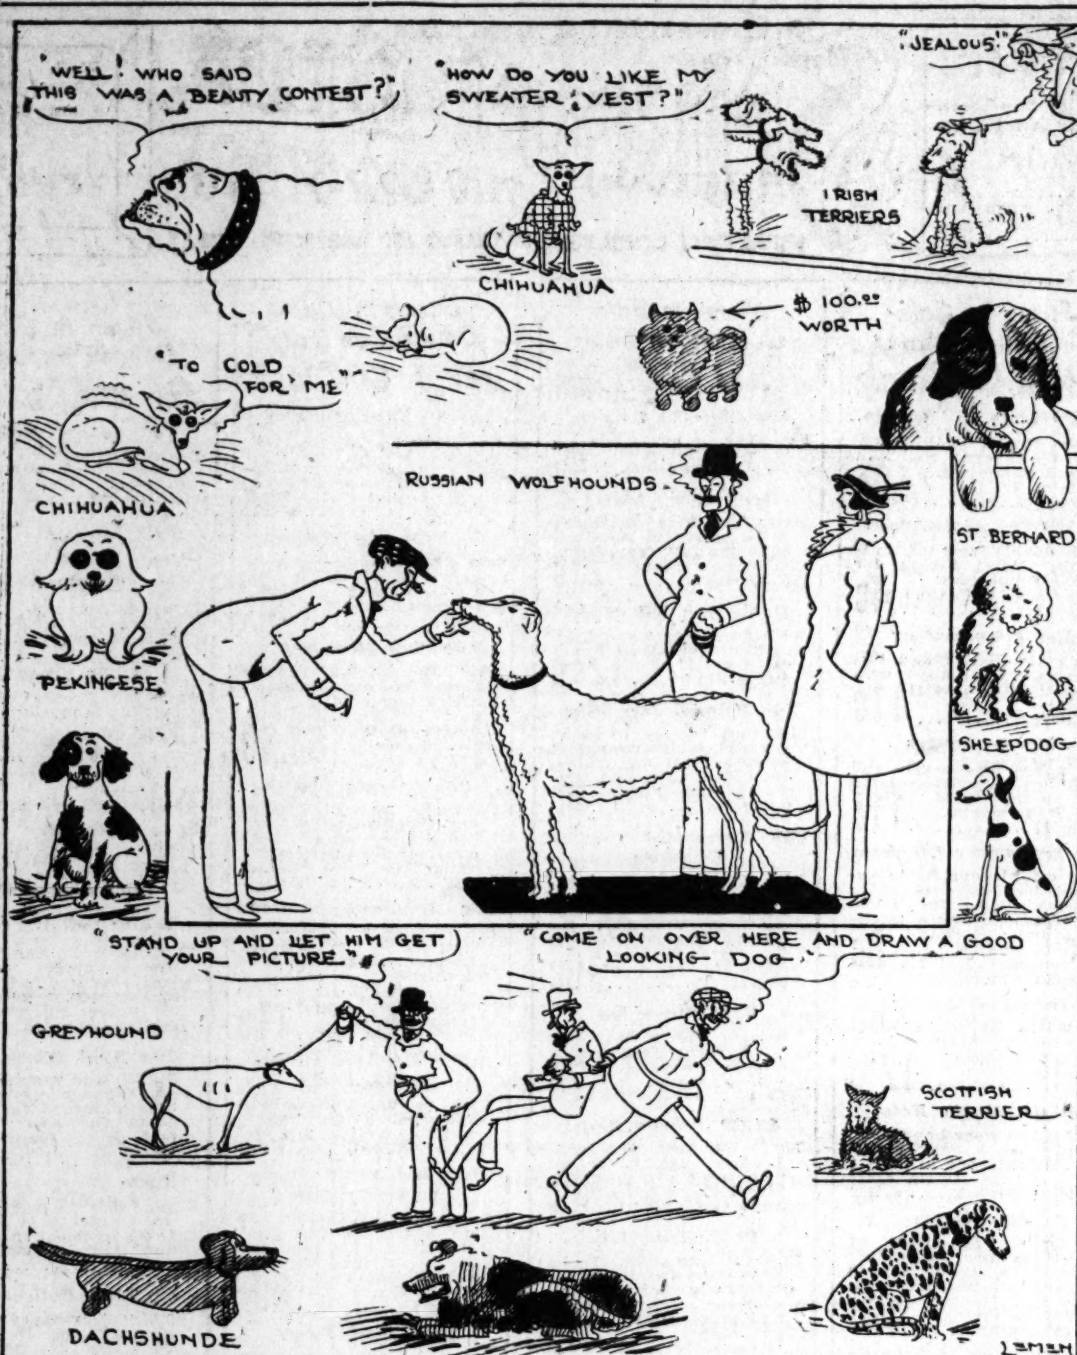

The principal will remain untouched for the present. The income, about $500 annually, will be used to establish three or more additional stations of the Chicago Infant Welfare Society.

The fund has been increasing by interest accumulation since the fair and recently Mrs. Palmer has been urged to take steps toward making use of it while the fund is in its disposition.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR SLAYER OF BRIDE, PLEADED GUILTY

Court Grants Request of Springfield (Mo.) Man Who Admitted First Degree Murder.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., March 31.—Ollie Blades, who pleaded guilty here yesterday to the charge of murdering his 16-year-old bride, was sentenced today to life imprisonment.

Blades shot his wife to death last December in a country road near Republic, Mo., just a month after his marriage. The two had quarreled and Mrs. Blades was on her way to the home of her father when her husband killed her. Each of the slayer's attorneys addressed the court, asking for a life sentence in the penitentiary rather than the gallows for Blades.

Mrs. Blades was slain Dec. 29 during a quarrel. Blades and his young wife had quarreled and separated four weeks before their marriage. They met each other on the country road a short distance from Republic, and after a few words Blades aimed the rifle which he carried at his wife and shot her.

She fell to the ground, and blades, seeing she was not dead, fired again from his hip, but missed. Loading the gun again, he walked over to where she lay and, placing the muzzle almost over her, fired another shot into her. He then kissed her and went to the home of his mother, where he was arrested. Jealousy was said to have been the motive.

Ida Doty, the 13-year-old sister of the slain woman, was the only eyewitness. The sisters were on their way to the home of Mrs. Blades' father-in-law when they met the husband.

AGENT FINED $50 FOR CARELESS AUTO DRIVING

Man Who Ran Down Carpenter, Seriously Injuring Him, Blamed for Accident.

Carl R. Blasse of 623 Berthold avenue, assistant agent for the Fleischman Yeast Co., was fined $50 and costs by Judge Kimmel Tuesday for careless driving of an auto. The case was appealed.

The testimony showed that on March 3, at 3:30 p. m., Blasse was driving a machine west on Pine street, just behind a Post-Dispatch delivery wagon, and that at Eleventh street crossing Blasse ran down Seth Hunt, 71 years old, a carpenter, of 1100 Market street. Hunt was knocked under the delivery wagon, suffering four broken ribs, permanent injury to his right eye and lacerations of the scalp.

Harry Layton of 370 Cottage avenue, who was driving the delivery wagon, said Blasse's auto hit Hunt as he was crossing the street, after the delivery wagon had passed.

Dog Show at the Armory Fine Vocal Entertainment

First-Day Visitors Agree It Is One of the Best They Ever Listened To—All Kinds of Dogs Are on Exhibit.

Many St. Louis men and women went to the First Regiment Armory to hear the eighth annual dog show of the Mississippi Valley Kennel Club Monday afternoon and evening.

Some preferred the thin, pierce "yip-yip" of the toy terriers, while others found more enjoyment in the basso profundo "wood-wood" of the St. Bernards and Great Danes. All, however, agreed that it was one of the best dog shows they had ever listened to.

A dog show, considered as a vocal entertainment, is much less formal and more impromptu than grand opera. It is also more stimulating to the imagination. And when you are dog-tired, you can go home from a dog show, but you have to sit out an opera to get your $10 worth.

You can't walk up and stroke a grand opera tenor's curly locks and speak to him as kindly as though he were a human being. But you can be all things to all dogs. When the grand opera tenor sings at you fiercely you can at best sit still and feel like a medieval villain and a twentieth century spendthrift.

The stimulus to the imagination is vastly different at a dog show. When a St. Bernard gives you a kindly, tender stare at you, and grows at you and in fancy you are transformed into a double porthouse steak.

German Police Dog. Then, perhaps, you stroll over to where the Scottish terriers are benched just try to pat one of these solemn, wire-whiskered fellows on the head and say, "Nice doggie." It can't be done. You find yourself saying, "Eet's a bonnie nicht for th' end o' March. Eest no, Sandy?"

A fine, upstanding, wise-looking dog at the other side of the hall attracts your attention. As you approach him he eyes you closely and seems to be trying to remember when he saw you before. An attendant informs you that this is a German police dog. Instinctively you look around for "Verboten" signs and search yourself to see whether anyone in the crowd has slipped a bit of burglar tools in your pocket.

The Russian wolfhounds bring you back to earth and fill you with thoughts of the high cost of living. If these hounds really are handy at keeping the wolf from the door, no American family should be without one.

Dachshund Suggestion. Great Danes are found in every hamlet in Denmark. In this country there are more of them on the bench than on the stage. Theatrical managers, please take notice. The Great Dane is noted for his judicious manner and he has an air about him that makes you feel it would be dangerous to try to recall one of his decisions.

Then there are the pointers and setters. They are outwardly mild-mannered, but they have much to answer for. They make you feel like going right out and killing something—preferably the secondhand dealer that sold you the shotgun.

Beagle hounds are knock-kneed, and British bulldogs are bowlegged. Something ought to be done about this. Down with crookedness. The dachshund, too, ought to have some automatic safety device to prevent his caboose from being uncoupled from the rest of the train when he goes around a curve.

These are just a few random thoughts suggested by the dog show, which will continue until Thursday night. It is a good show.

An attendant informs you that this is a German police dog. Instinctively you look around for "Verboten" signs and search yourself to see whether anyone in the crowd has slipped a bit of burglar tools in your pocket.

The Russian wolfhounds bring you back to earth and fill you with thoughts of the high cost of living. If these hounds really are handy at keeping the wolf from the door, no American family should be without one.

Dachshund Suggestion. Great Danes are found in every hamlet in Denmark. In this country there are more of them on the bench than on the stage. Theatrical managers, please take notice. The Great Dane is noted for his judicious manner and he has an air about him that makes you feel it would be dangerous to try to recall one of his decisions.

Then there are the pointers and setters. They are outwardly mild-mannered, but they have much to answer for. They make you feel like going right out and killing something—preferably the secondhand dealer that sold you the shotgun.

Beagle hounds are knock-kneed, and British bulldogs are bowlegged. Something ought to be done about this. Down with crookedness. The dachshund, too, ought to have some automatic safety device to prevent his caboose from being uncoupled from the rest of the train when he goes around a curve.

These are just a few random thoughts suggested by the dog show, which will continue until Thursday night. It is a good show.

RETURNS EXPECTED TO SHOW CLARKE WINNER BY 1171

Sirby, However, Is Likely to Contest in Arkansas Senatorial Race.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 31.—The Pointsett County official vote in the race for United States Senator is expected to reach the State Democratic Central Committee today, showing 1171 majority for James P. Clarke. He then would be nominated by more than 300 votes.

As the figures now stand, William F. Kirby is slightly in the lead and his followers insist Senator Clarke's majority in Pointsett County is but 671. Watchers from both headquarters have been in Pointsett County for several days. Clarke's managers say a deal had been made to reduce Clarke's majority.

State Senator Clyde L. Going, chairman of the Pointsett County Committee, telephoned to Little Rock this morning that the votes had been canvassed and certified by the committee showing Clarke had a majority of 1171. Correspondents here declined to verify this statement and Senator Going boarded a train for Little Rock.

A contest before the State Democratic Central Committee is probable, with a possible appeal to the State convention. Evidence of illegal voting in Scott and Lincoln counties is being sought. Every race was close in the State contest, but returns assure the nomination of George B. Cook for State Superintendent of Public Instruction and L. L. Coffman for State Auditor.

Clarke carried 25 counties by less than fifty. Clarke carried seven and Kirby nine by less than 100. Clarke claims he has official figures which show him to be 215 ahead without Pointsett County.

$850 IN BURIED GOLD AWARDED TO VETERAN

Judge Decides Civil War Soldier's Story of Hiding Treasure Is True.

BREMERTON, Wash., March 31.—A tin can of money found buried on the beach near the Bremerton navy yard by boys belongs to John F. Doolittle, a Civil War veteran, Superior Judge French decided yesterday. Several claimants appeared, among them being Doolittle and Edward T. Wilson, paymaster of the armored cruiser South Dakota.

Wilson based his claim on the theft of $2000 from the safe of the cruiser Philadelphia two years ago. He thought the buried money might be a part of this loot. Doolittle told the Court that he had buried the money himself, Nov. 2, 1911, placing 43 gold pieces and three $20 gold pieces in the can.

Judge French opened the can and found the contents tallied with Doolittle's description.

MAJOR PAROLES PASTOR CONVICTED FOR GIRL'S DEATH

The Rev. Clyde Gow Freed 43 Days Before Term Ends So He Can Visit Sick Sister.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 31.—Gov. Major last night issued a parole to the Rev. Clyde Gow, a former minister at Ellsberry, Mo., convicted of causing the death of Miss Lizzie Gleason, a school teacher, who died after an operation.

He was sentenced to the penitentiary for four years and had 43 days of his term to serve, but was paroled because his sister, Mrs. Colver of Trenton, Mo., is dangerously ill and had pleaded to be allowed to see her brother.

Miss Gleason was a teacher in the Smith School district, near the line between Lincoln and Pike counties. She met Gow, who was in charge of a Methodist church in Ellsberry, and they became friendly. She boarded at the home of a customer, Mrs. F. Greene and Gow was a frequent caller there, often bringing her home from church.

A janitor of the church testified at the trial at Mexico, Mo., that he had seen the couple in the church alone.

Miss Gleason became ill and when she realized that she was about to die told her mother that an illegal operation had been performed. She accused the pastor and Dr. W. A. Hemphill, an Ellsberry surgeon. The arrest of Hemphill and Gow and the conviction and sentence of Gow followed.

Gow is paroled to William Smith of Holt, Clay County, and must report until the expiration of his sentence.

He was on duty in the library of the prison and was a model prisoner.

CHARTER GRANTED TO SUCCESSOR OF M. A. C.

Missouri Athletic Association Application Approved by Judge Rasseleur.

The Missouri Athletic Association was granted a charter by Judge Rasseleur in the Circuit Court Tuesday under the statute that authorizes incorporations for benevolent, religious or educational purposes without capitalization and not subject to taxes.

The charter was asked several days ago by the directors of the Missouri Athletic Club, which desired to change the club's name following the fire which destroyed its quarters and caused the loss of 30 lives. The Court appointed H. A. Loevy to investigate the purposes of the proposed new organization.

He filed his report Tuesday, saying that the aims of the association should be "encouraged as tending by the practice of literary and athletic work to create and elevate the standard of mental and physical activities among its members, thus influencing the community at large in that direction."

The officers of the new organization are Norton Newcomb, president; E. W. Bornmueller, secretary, and F. M. Hickman, treasurer. These officers and the members of the directorate are the same as were in charge of the Missouri Athletic Club.

MORENO TO LEAVE CITY

Sewer Commissioner to Accept Chicago Concern's Offer.

Sewer Commissioner Charles A. Moreno will leave the city service in two weeks to accept an offer from a Chicago construction and engineering firm. Moreno was appointed Sewer Commissioner three years ago by Mayor Kreitzmann. As a member of the Board of Public Improvements, he has acted as consulting engineer in construction problems outside his department.

His city salary is $4000 a year and the Chicago offer is greatly in excess of that.

Going into debt recklessly has been the ruin of many young men, and these days of financial depression the ability to save is as necessary as the ability to read and write. There is an old axiom to the effect that if you spend your all, somebody else deposits your savings. Open your savings account today at the Mercantile Trust Company, Eighth and Locust streets, accounts can be opened and deposits made by mail.

REBUKED; TAKES POISON

Bessie McTernan, 16 years old, of 3117 Thomas street, a Bell telephone operator at the Tyler exchange, was at the city hospital Tuesday in a serious condition, after swallowing half the contents of an ounce bottle of chloroform liniment Monday night.

The girl said she swallowed the poison because of a rebuke she received Monday from the chief operator at the exchange. She said she was instructed when cutting work early Sunday to telephone the office during the day to learn if her services would be needed. She failed to do this and when reporting Monday she received what she said was her "first scolding."

PRIZE BULLDOG STOLEN

George Trummel of Mobile, Ala., Tuesday reported to the police the loss of a bulldog which, he said, he had brought to St. Louis for entry in the dog show. He values it at $200.

Trummel is stopping at the home of John Leshman, 3543 Park avenue. He left the dog tied on a rear porch Monday night. It was gone Tuesday morning.

Porch Climbers Got Watch.
While Paul D. Parker and family of 2223 Red Bud avenue were at church Sunday evening porch climbers, entering through a second-story window, took a gold watch valued at $25, an opera and a field glass and other valuables.

EAT LESS MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT OR YOU FEEL BACKACHE AND RHEUMATIC

Too much meat forms uric acid in the blood, which clogs kidneys; causes Rheumatism and irritates the Bladder.

If you must have your meat every day eat it but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaker, then you suffer with dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or stomach headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acid so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder trouble.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.—ADV.

Continuing—A Sale of Sample Line Girls' Finest Dresses In Two Specially Priced Groups at $7.50 and $12.50

Many of these Dresses are handmade throughout, and all are trimmed with hand-embroidered real Irish Fillet, Florentine or Point de Venise lace.

They are made of batiste, nets, volles, crepes, fine linens, crepe de chine, taffetas and lace. Some are just a trifle soiled.

Sizes are mostly 6, 8 and 10 years, but there are just 12 and 14 years. (Girls' Section—Third Floor.)

Wednesday an Exceptional Offering of New Silk Suits for Stout Women
In sizes 37 to 51-inch bust measurement, and each suit a remarkable value at

$24.75

Through the co-operation of a leading Eastern Maker of women's suits, we have had a special lot of extra good quality silks made up in stylish and attractive suits to sell at this low price. Aside from the low price, a notable feature of these suits is the style. For not only are there plain tailored styles, but also dressier models combining that degree of style and fit which stout women have difficulty in finding.

All were cut according to our own specifications. One model is a more silk tailored effect, with a slightly cutaway, two-button coat with shawl collar. The skirt has wide tucks across the front, giving a tunic effect. This model comes in green, wistaria, navy, Copenhagen blue and black.

Another dressier model is of more silk, combined with silk poplin. The coat has draped revers and lace collar; the skirt is made with tucked and tunic effect. Colors, green, wistaria, navy, Copenhagen and black. (Women's Suit Section—Third Floor.)

A Shirt-Making Offer Which Is, Indeed, Extraordinary in Many Respects Inasmuch as it Brings Shirts of Fine Quality

Made-to-Your-Individual Measure—Shirts Such as You Have Undoubtedly Many Times Paid $2.50, $3 and $3.50, at Four for Five!

The point you will probably wish to be enlightened on first and the one which we can hardly wait to talk on is THE WORKMANSHIP.

It is going to be a custom shirt-making event, and the Shirts are going to be the kind which regular custom shirt-makers would not touch for less than $2.50, $3 and $3.50.

A point equally important—the materials—We secured enough material to make about 2500 Shirts. They are the kinds of materials which are only used in high-class, higher-priced Shirts—fine mercerized cloths, silk figured and striped solistes, woven and corded madras, crepe effects, rep cloths and satin stripes, in a multitude of the newest colorings.

As to style—they will be made up in negligee Summer effects, with soft French turnback cuffs, and in any size from 14 to 19-inch neckband.

Shirts can be promised for delivery within two weeks from date of sale, and orders for monogramming will be taken at time of purchase.

This is a splendid opportunity to order $2.50, $3 and $3.50 Shirts, for you have the privilege of buying them at

BLIND BABY SEES WHEN PIG'S CORNEA IS GRAFTED ON EYE

Baltimore Surgeons Anxiously Watching, in Hope for Permanent Restoration.

LAD REACHES FOR DOLL

Then When Candle Is Passed Before His Face His Glance Follows the Light.

BALTIMORE, March 31.—Famous eye specialists will watch eagerly for the next month the outcome of the case of Baby David Kane, who has had the sight of his left eye restored through the grafting of the cornea of a pig's eye on his own.

While Dr. Floyd D. Withman, the young surgeon who performed the delicate and difficult operation at the Baltimore Eye, Ear and Nose Hospital, has hopes that the restoration of the little fellow's sight may be permanent, he refuses to make any positive prognosis until some weeks have elapsed, and an opportunity has been had to determine whether the new cornea will grow and functionate, or whether it will shortly become opaque and sightless.

Predictions Uncertain.
If the operation proves a final success, hundreds of cases of blindness due to the opacity of the cornea or outer layer of the eyeball, when that organ is otherwise intact, may be improved, but the fact that noted ophthalmologists have been trying for 10 years without success to perform such an operation with permanent results makes any prediction of the outcome at this time uncertain.

Only recently scientists, who have for the most part failed in their efforts to graft the cornea of a healthy rabbit or even of a human being on a diseased optic in order to restore even a part of the "window," turned to young pigs and have been experimenting in efforts to secure a successful graft. The fact that sight has been briefly restored several times by such operations had led them to continue their efforts to secure permanent restoration. The difficulty has been that the new cornea, probably owing to the scant blood supply of the front portion of the eyeball, has not had normal growth and has soon lost the transparency which made it of service.

Reaches for the Doll.
Baby Kane and the pig were both prepared with extreme care for the operation, which was watched with tense anxiety by the mother and doctors. When the bandages were taken from little David's eye in a darkened room, admitting a little light, one of the physicians at the cot side held up a doll before the youngster. As his mother bent anxiously over him he blinked uncertainly a moment or two, then reached up both hands for the doll. Quickly Dr. Kane placed his own hands over the right eye, in which there was known to be some sight, but still the little fellow kept reaching after the toy. Then the room was darkened again, the right eye was blindfolded and a candle was moved slowly before the baby's face. The left eye turned slowly as the little fellow's glance followed the slowly moving light.

Overjoyed at the first results of the operation, the physicians ceased all further tests, though they will be gradually amplified from day to day.

GIRL WITH A BROKEN NECK DANCES THE TANGO

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Nearly two months ago Sadie Lyncher, aged 17, suffered an injury which doctors now diagnose as a broken neck, but she did not know it was so serious and went about as usual, even dancing the tango. She had fallen down a flight of stairs on the way to a party and the only apparent effect of the accident which caused the neck fracture was a slight soreness that developed the next morning.

It was not until March 3 that her condition was correctly diagnosed, and since then she has remained virtually motionless with heavy weights suspended from pulleys holding her head in place. Complete recovery within a few months is expected by physicians.

Bring in your $100, your $50, your $25, your $5 or even your $1, and open a savings account at the Mercantile Trust Company, Eighth and Locust streets, without further delay. Form the habit, even though you have to begin with so small an amount as $1 or $5. By making a start, you will have won a moral victory over yourself and your extravagant tendency to spend all that you make. Once started on the savings account road, you will not want to leave it, but as thousands of your thrifty fellow-citizens and neighbors have done, will keep on and keep on until you have saved enough to insure you against dependence upon others. The savings account pathway leads into the grand high-road of financial independence which every true American wishes to walk upon.

Japanese Admiral Imprisoned.
TOKIO, March 31.—Vice-Admiral W. Matsumoto, who was recently in the command of the Kure naval station, in connection with the navy scandal, brought about by the alleged acceptance of illicit commissions by naval officers in return for their influence in the allotment of contracts, was sent to prison today after a prolonged examination.

SALARY INCREASES FOR ASSESSORS RECOMMENDED

Assembly Committee to Approve Increase of $23,200 in Department Expenditures.

The principal salary increases to be recommended by the Joint Revision Committee of the expiring Assembly session will be $23,200, to be distributed among district assessors, the president of the Board of Assessors and clerks in that office.

The assessor's office is operated today on the same salary basis that prevailed 20 years ago, when only 60,000 tax bills were issued, compared with 125,000 now.

The committee will recommend increases totaling $35,880, and will oppose or postpone action on bills asking annual increases of about $75,000. It will recommend that a new body be created at the session which convenes April 21, to plan a thorough adjustment of payrolls in all departments.

It is a mistaken idea that one must have a large amount of money to open an account. The man or woman who is trying to save does not need a checking account. That can come afterwards. The thing to do is save $5, or for that matter, $1; go at once to the Mercantile Trust Company, Eighth and Locust streets, and open a savings account. The way it will grow is surprising, and one becomes independent in a few years.

COMMONS BEGINS DEBATE TO DECIDE FATE OF ULSTER

Home-Rule-for-Ireland Bill Is Brought Up for Second Reading.

LONDON, March 31.—After a week of sensational developments in connection with the Ulster situation, the House of Commons today started the debate on the second reading of the home rule for Ireland bill. It is expected the measure will occupy the House for at least three days.

The absence of Premier Asquith, who was in charge of the bill, was bitterly complained of by the Unionists. Asquith quit the House when he took over the position of Secretary of State for War, vacated by Col. Seely. Under the rules, he will have to be voted on by his constituents for having accepted an office with pay before he can return to the House.

A report from Dublin says Asquith is to be opposed in the election for East Fife by James Larkin, who, as head of the Transport Workers' Union, was leader of the strike in Dublin last autumn.

In connection with the strike Mr. Larkin was sentenced to seven months' imprisonment for inciting to riot, but later was released.

Viscount Morley of Blackburn, Lord President of the Council, today abandoned his intention of resigning from the Cabinet, intimating in the House of Lords yesterday.

The Cabinet met today, and the strongest pressure was brought to bear on Lord Morley not to add to the difficulties of his colleagues by giving up his office.

Annual Report Shows Expenditures to Have Been Far Below $2,182,990 Appropriation.

Samuel B. McPherson, president of the Police Board, Monday drew up a statement covering the maintenance of the Police Department for the fiscal year ending Tuesday, showing a balance of $89,000, which will be returned to the City Treasury. This is the largest amount ever returned from an appropriation for the department's maintenance.

The total appropriation for the year was $2,182,990, and the expenditures $2,093,990.18, according to the statement, and an appropriation of $2,178,340 will be asked for the year beginning Wednesday. This is $400 less than the preceding appropriation.

The force was maintained throughout the year at its full complement, with an increase of 21 commissioned men and 28 non-commissioned employees. One assistant surgeon was released.

SEPARATED 39 YEARS, COUPLE WILL BE REWED

Two Married Daughters and Former Best Man, 74 Years Old, Will Be Attendants.

BAITMORE, March 31.—Married in 1873, separated in 1875, David C. Clark, 73 years old, and Mrs. Mary E. Humphrey, 56 years old, married again and widowed since the separation, will be remarried on June 3.

Eleven years after the separation Mrs. Clark got a divorce and remarried. After the death of her second husband, two years ago, the thoughts of the widow, now Mrs. Mary E. Humphrey, turned to husband No. 1, by whom she had two daughters before the separation. He responded to the invitation to visit her on New Year's day and a second courtship followed.

The two daughters, now themselves married, will be their mother's attendants at the ceremony. James Jenkins, 74 years old, who was the best man at the other wedding 41 years ago, will again stand up with the bridegroom.

Rooming House Proprietor Asks Arrest of Drug Clerk Who Had Just Left Place.

John W. Dietrich, proprietor of a rooming house at 1120 South Eighth street, has asked the police to arrest Herman Consterner, 28 years old, a drug clerk in a drug store at Sarah street and McPherson avenue. He said that while he was away Monday night Consterner entered the Dietrich house and went to a room on the third floor which his wife, from whom he has been separated, occupies.

Mrs. Anna Straub and Mrs. Anna Scuderi, rooming women, said after he departed and found the room in flames. They extinguished the fire. Consterner is said to have been living at 728 Marion street.

GIRL ACCUSES ESCORT

Youth Arrested on Charge of Attacking Companion.

Joseph Fisher, 21 years old, of 3735 Marine avenue, was held at the McNolla Avenue Police Station, Tuesday, on a charge made by Edna Bernhardt, 17, of 4360 Swan avenue.

The girl said Fisher pulled her into a vacant lot near her home as she was returning from a dance Sunday night, and that she had a long struggle with him, in which he took a ring and bracelet from her, before she escaped. She said her brother-in-law, Joseph Sheban, passed the lot, but Fisher kept her from making an outcry by holding his hand over her mouth, and threatening her with a knife.

WOMAN BOUND, GAGGED AND ROBBED OF $1000

Mrs. Annie Moore Tells Police of Holdup by Pair Who Took Jewels and Cash.

Mrs. Annie Moore, 55 years old, manager of a laundry branch and restaurant at 2102 Market street, told the police Tuesday she was bound and gagged by two men Monday night, and was robbed of $40 and her jewelry, valued, she said, at more than $1000. She said she had invested all her savings in jewelry. The money taken was due the Anchor Laundry Co.

Mrs. Moore said a man called and asked for his laundry, giving the name of "T. Ward." When she turned to look for the bundle, she said, she was plied and another man entered and helped in binding and gagging her. The two men, she said, then robbed the cash drawer and took her jewelry from a rear living room. She freed herself after 15 minutes.

The chief item in stolen jewelry was a pair of diamond earrings, valued at $750.

TWO WOMEN SLAIN; WOUNDED BOARDER HELD IN HOSPITAL

Man Found in Closet, Flourishing Revolver; Later He Says "Man in Brown" Did It.

CHICAGO, March 31.—Should he recover from bullet wounds believed to have been self-inflicted, the police announced today they would arrest Peter Welter on a charge of murdering Mrs. Catherine Morris and Mrs. Sarah Sallan, neighbors, who were shot to death yesterday when working in their homes. Each woman was shot through the head. Welter is in a critical condition at the county hospital.

A boarder at the Sallan home, and was a friend of the Morris family. The police believed Welter attacked the two women when under the influence of liquor. Flourishing a revolver and threatening to shoot, Welter was found hiding in the closet in his room weak from wounds in his abdomen and right temple. A stained trail led from his room to the kitchen where Mrs. Sallan's body was found. Neighbors told the police they had seen Welter at the Morris home a short time before.

"A man shot us," was all Welter would tell the police. Later, at the hospital, he cried continually during his conscious moments. Several times he gasped, "A man in a brown suit." Once Welter said he wanted to talk to a policeman, a friend, but when the policeman was called the wounded man refused to talk.

The police found only two loaded cartridges and one exploded shell in the cylinder of Welter's revolver. They believe Welter had thrown several exploded shells out of the window of his room.

Because of his peculiar actions Welter was known to neighbors as "Crazy Peter." The police were informed he had been drinking heavily.

CITY'S RESERVOIR USED FOR BAPTISING CONVERTS

Syracuse Taxpayers Now Demand Purification of Water; Threaten to Banish New Sect. SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 31.—Taxpayers started an agitation today to have Lake Hawsatha, a Syracuse reservoir, purified because five converts to the Saints of God and Church of Christ, a sect which includes both whites and negroes in its membership, were immersed there yesterday.

The five recruits were all women. A dozen negroes, deacons and elders of the sect, looked on or assisted at the ceremony.

Threats are being made to run the leaders of the new religion out of the city, as was done in Auburn recently. The prophet and elders have the right to kiss the female believers and wash their feet.

B. F. BUSH PUTS UP $5000 OF FUND FOR THE PAGEANT

Advances for Immediate Use
Half of Sum to Be Raised by Railroads.

MAN IS BARGAIN HUNTER

Women Admit John S. Payne,
Supplies Buyer, Beats Them at Own Game.

B. F. Bush, president of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, has given his personal check for $5000 to the Finance Committee of the Pageant and Masque of St. Louis, as one-half the $10,000 to be raised by the railroads toward the financing of the Pageant. He will reimburse himself when the amount is obtained from the various railroads by the subcommittee of which he is chairman.

At a meeting of the Finance Committee at the Mercantile Club, two weeks ago, Bush said he was ready to "put up" one-half the amount assessed against the railroads, if it was needed for immediate use. A number of other amounts, to be subscribed by various industries, are being made up.

John S. Payne of 6173 Kensington avenue, who is acting as purchasing agent for the Pageant, is declared by the women in charge of the Pageant costume shop to be their superior as a bargain hunter.

Payne is a department manager in a large hardware house, and is able to give only the early part of each day to work for the Pageant. That, however, is the very best time for the work he has to do.

How He Makes Purchases.
He calls at the Pageant costume shop, on the second floor of the Kinloch Building, and learns what articles are needed for the day's work. Some days the demand is chiefly for costumes of gaudy colors, as materials for costumes to be worn by the prehistoric peoples in the Pageant and the spirits and earth forces in the Masque.

At other times dyes and paints are wanted, or tennis nets, fish seines, bamboo poles and clotheslines are sought. The bamboo is cut into crossbones for Indian ornaments, the nets are made into costumes and the clotheslines into gilded decorations.

Payne has the bargain sales at his fingers' ends before he starts out, and he knows where to get whatever articles he wants from the retail stores, at bottom prices. But he has what is still more valuable, an acquaintance at the wholesale houses, with the privilege of buying small lots at wholesale prices, or even at less than wholesale prices from some houses which are desirous of helping the Pageant.

Call for Workers Issued.
To show that Payne stands the acid test as a bargain hunter, it need only be added that he can match colors perfectly, and knows the newest refinements of shade. "Forest green" and "leaf brown" are no mystery to him.

A call for more workers has been made by the costume corps. At present the force varies widely from day to day. Some days so many clubs and societies appear for duty that it is difficult to keep them all busy, and other days the force is small. Mrs. Edith Barriger is in charge at the costume shop.

WARDEN M'CLUNG SUE FOR $7500 FOR SLANDER

Former Employee of Prison
Labor Contractor Alleges He Lost Position Over Remark.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 31.—C. F. Schuster, formerly an employee of the Star Clothing Manufacturing Co. at its plant operated at the State penitentiary, filed a suit for $7500 damages against Warden D. C. McClung yesterday, alleging slander. Schuster alleges that McClung said to James A. Houchin, head of the clothing company, "Do you know that Schuster served a term in a reform school in Illinois?"

When Houchin replied that he did not, Schuster alleges that McClung stated: "Well, he did."

Schuster said he was getting $21 a week from the Star Clothing Co. and that he lost this employment and had been unable to secure other work. He alleges he was greatly humiliated by McClung's remark.

Warden McClung denied Schuster admission to the penitentiary, alleging that Schuster carried out letters from the convicts, which is in violation of the rules of the institution. McClung denied that he made the remark attributed to him by Houchin. He said he asked Schuster if the report that he had been in a reformatory was true, to which Schuster replied that it was not. He said he never mentioned the report to any other person.

As a mere matter of business, every one should save something out of his earnings and deposit it himself. The mere fact that something is saved is a distinct gain in character strength. Besides this, money deposited at the Mercantile Trust Co. Eighth and Locust streets, at 3 1/2 per cent, soon accumulates and when the opportunity for investment, or to go into business arises, the depositor is ready for it.

COMPUTE MOON'S WEIGHT

Chicago Scientists Begin Experiments to Determine Size.

CHICAGO, March 31.—Experiments for the weighing and measuring of the moon are being conducted by scientists at the University of Chicago. It was announced today.

The effect of the sun on the tides will be compared to the effect of the moon and by interpreting the results the scientists hope to determine the weight of the moon compared with that of the sun.

Unidentified Person Picked Up at Hargadine-McKittrick's.

An unidentified man took his life Monday night in a fall from the freight platform on the Lucas avenue side of the Hargadine-McKittrick Dry Goods Co., 911-919 Washington avenue.

The man was about 30 years old, 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighed about 150 pounds, had light complexion, blue eyes, sandy mustache, brown hair, streaked with gray; striped trousers, dark sack coat, gray flannel shirt, tan hose, black shoes and a brown soft hat.

Landslide Imperils Two Towns.
VENICE, March 31.—A great landslide threatens the villages of Clausetto and Vitodasio, in the Province of Udine. Parts of the villages, which are inhabited by about 300 persons each, have already been evacuated, in the fear of more extensive slides caused by the overflowing of the rivers.

Check the Symptoms of Lung Trouble

One of the many reasons why Lung Trouble is so difficult to fight is because the disease is often of a very insidious nature. The patient may look well, but in reality is fast losing strength by continued night sweats, fever and cough. These symptoms should be checked as quickly as possible. Eckman's Alternative is beneficial in checking fever and night sweats, and it has brought about many complete recoveries. Read this case:

305 W. 26th St., New York.

"Gentlemen:—I am writing you this testimonial that others may know what your Alternative has done for me. Since I was a very young woman I was a sufferer from Bronchitis. I tried doctor after doctor, getting little or no benefit. Finally I had night sweats, weak spells and lost rapidly in weight, and my doctor told me if they were not checked I would have Lung Trouble. Miss Mary Korhamer, who is a friend of mine, recommended after long years Alternative and insisted that I try it. I am now, after two years, perfectly well, strong and healthy."

Eckman's Alternative has been proven for many years to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Rubbing Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Sold by Ralston Drug Co., Wolf-Wilson Drug Co., Judge & Delp Drug Co. and leading druggists. Write the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa. for booklet telling of recoveries and additional evidence.

PLAYGOERS' GUIDE

Robert Hilliard in "The Arty Case." Olympic. A disappointing detective play, unskillfully constructed and so largely devoted to advertising the merits of the Dictograph and Roneophone that its dramatic value is much diminished. Played in a somewhat too vociferous key at most moments.

"Life of Our Savior." Shubert. A genuinely beautiful, sincerely reverential and admirably acted photoplay, vitally presenting the sacred story that constitutes its theme in the Holy Land setting of its actual environment.

"The Divorce Question." American. An effectively shaped drama of much heart-interest, teaching the evil of divorce in its bearing upon the children of divorced parents.

Vaudeville. Columbia. Bill headed by Cecil Lean, assisted by Cleo Mayfield in songs and travesties, and Bickel and Watson in German dialect comedy.

Vaudeville. Hippodrome. Bill headed by the Mullen Sisters in "The United States Military Mail," a big musical and singing production.

Vaudeville. Grand. Bill headed by the Six Diving Males in aquatic feats.

POLICE CONDEMN TANGO AS DANCED IN SOUTH SIDE CAFE

Morris A. Heimann, Balloonist, Is "Watcher" at 13th and Rutger Streets.

"WORST" THEY EVER SAW

Excise Commissioner Said to Have Ignored Complaint Made Several Weeks Ago.

Detectives Campbell and Chrysler of the morality squad reported to Excise Commissioner Anderson Tuesday that dances permitted at the Piccolo Midgets' Summer and Winter Garden, northeast corner of Thirteenth and Rutger streets, are the most objectionable that they have ever seen.

Several reports of disorderly conduct at the place have been made heretofore to the Excise Commissioner.

When the detectives visited the place Saturday night, they said they found Morris A. Heimann, widely known as a balloonist, making himself generally useful and keeping things moving at high speed. Heimann owns the property. The license is in the names of Alex Ebert and Adolph Schemel, midgets.

Heimann, when asked about it, said he keeps watch for them to see that everything goes right.

Many Women in Place.

The detectives were looking for a woman suspected of robbing an Iowa man two weeks ago. Behind the saloon they found a cafe, with an elevated dance floor at one end. There were about 90 women and about 100 men in the cafe. As many as could get on the dance floor were dancing what they called the tango, with astounding contortions, the detectives say.

After each dance, the tangoists rushed to the tables and called for beer. There was no pretense of serving meals. A few nibbled sandwiches. Heimann bustled about, giving orders to the waiters and acting as master of ceremonies.

After each interval of beer drinking the dancing appeared to the detectives to become worse. The detectives recognized women who were formerly residents of the segregated district.

Reported Several Weeks Ago.

They found the woman they were seeking. They arrested her, but on learning the man had left town, they released her.

The detectives, surprised that such a place should be permitted, asked Capt. McNamee of the Soudard district about it. He said Patrolman Kaiser had reported it several weeks ago to the Excise Commissioner.

The detectives, in their report to Anderson, Tuesday, recommended that the license be revoked.

Heimann is a "lookout."

Heimann's home is next door to the Piccolo "garden." One of the entrances to the dance hall, the police say, is through his home. To a Post-Dispatch reporter Heimann said Tuesday:

"I own the property. The place is run by Ebert. I have nothing to do with it except that I am a friend to the 'little fellow' and I want to help him along. I run my business in the day time and at night I am always at the cafe watching to see that everything goes right. There is no business at the cafe during the day."

"About 7 or 8 o'clock in the evening, people drop in for a little bite to eat and a little dance. It is one of the nicest, cleanest places in St. Louis. The best people of the city go there. Everything is all right. I watch for Ebert and am on the lookout to see that everything is all right. The dancing is very nice. They dance the waltz, the two-step and the tango. I cannot tell you how nice it is. You would have to come and look."

"If anybody don't dance decently at our place we call them right away. If they don't cut it out we stop the music in a minute. If the detectives say it is 'raw,' I don't know what to say. They want to get the 'little fellow'; that's what they want."

The police records show that three reports of disorders at the Piccolo have heretofore been forwarded to Excise Commissioner Anderson. July 22, 1913, neighbors complained about the noise at the garden and at 11:30 p. m. Policeman Conron ordered a man to stop playing the piano. Heimann told the man to keep on playing, and he did so until closing time at 1 o'clock. The neighbors who complained were Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Daves of 1351 South Thirteenth street, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Withopf of 1350 South Thirteenth street, and Mrs. Jennie Blake of 1351 Rutger street.

Women Complain of Robbery.

March 27, 1913, Policeman Kaiser arrested two men on complaint of Miss Anna Slindt, 15 years old, of 207 Lynch street, who said they had snatched her and had taken her furs, her watch, bracelet and locket while she was in the garden. The men returned her property and she refused to prosecute them, so they were released.

March 15, 1913, at 1:30 a. m., 30 minutes after closing time, Patrolman Kaiser said he saw a horse and buggy in front of the place. The door was closed. The carter refused to let him in, he said. Three couples came out at the side door.

Kaiser says he forced his way in and found six men and seven women there, and that there were partially filled beer bottles on the tables. One of the men was Morris Heimann. One of the women once made a balloon ascension with him.

Kaiser asked her where she lived and reported that she said she resided wherever she hung her hat. Kaiser asked a man where she lived and he said facetiously that she lived at the Anheuser-Busch brewery. The men said they were actors.

The Piccolo license was issued June 14, 1913, to Alex Ebert and Adolph Schemel both of 1200 Rutger street. The residence of Heimann is at 1200 Rutger street.

dence of Heimann is at 1200 Rutger street.

Neighbors Say They Like It.

Excise Commissioner Anderson said he had received only two police reports on the Piccolo, the one relating to Miss Slindt's complaint, and the one relating to the piano playing, and each time he cited Ebert. The testimony in the Slindt case was that she had quarreled with William Buol Jr., and that he had taken from her articles he previously had given to her, he said.

The piano playing, Anderson said, was not a violation of the law, but he ordered it stopped.

When Anderson received the report of Detectives Campbell and Chrysler Tuesday he cited Ebert to appear April 7.

FOUR MEN ARE HELD AS ROBBERS OF PARIS GRAVES

Said to Have Planned to Loot Tomb of Calmette, Editor of Figaro.

PARIS, March 31.—The long vigil which has been kept nightly since last November by 36 Constables at the Cemetery of Pere la Chaise, in the hope of capturing the despoilers who have committed many depredations, resulted early today in the arrest of four men.

The first arrested had been traced by a Constable to an antiquarian's shop, where he was trying to sell a small and very old statue of the Virgin, which proved to have been stolen from the cemetery. He confessed and said the gang had planned to steal last night from the tomb of Calmette, the editor of solid silver palm deposited by Sarah Figaro, slain by Mrs. Calliaux, the Bernhardt.

In December men violated the grave of Mlle. Lantelme, a famous Paris comedienne, and stripped her body of many jewels, although in their work they missed a necklace of rare gems about the woman's neck.

Mlle. Lantelme's jewels were famous. Most of them were sold by auction after her death. She was the wife of Alfred Charles Edwards, the founder and long the editor of the Paris Matin. It has been ascertained that the gang has tampered with 78 monuments, tombs and graves. The despoilers wore masks. One of them is 14 years old.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR AND ITCHING SCALP—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save your hair! Danderine destroys dandruff and stops falling hair at once—Grows hair and we can prove it.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine now will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health. Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—ADY.

FRENCH SCIENTISTS FEAR LEPROSY MAY BECOME A SCOURGE

Pasteur Institute Doctor Asked to Investigate and Prepare Law to Conquer Disease.

PARIS, March 31.—The Ministry of the Interior occupied with the serious increase of leprosy in France, particularly in Paris, in the last few years, has commissioned Dr. Marchaux of the Pasteur Institute to investigate and report preventive measures for adoption in a bill to go immediately before the Chamber of Deputies.

It is intended in this bill to make leprosy legally "notifiable" and to provide severe penalties for the non-enforcement of the law. It is also proposed in this bill to adopt preventive means against the spreading of the disease, which are unprovided for in the present French law.

Dr. Marchaux, who is an expert in this disease, and whose knowledge has been gained by observation in all parts of the world, says he sees no reason why, under present conditions, leprosy in France should not become the scourge it was 600 or 700 years ago. The law now does not recognize the existence of the disease, there is no provision for the isolation of lepers and no legal "notification" is required.

Scientists state that at least 5 per cent of the Paris sewer rats are leprous, carrying contagion about. A large number of lepers in advanced stages of the disease are known to the authorities. France now has 300 lepers, against 60 a few years ago. Forty cases are in one town, Guingamp, in Brittany, there are 50 in one colony on the Italian frontier and several cases in Marseilles.

DR. MAWSON, THE ANTARCTIC EXPLORER, WEDS

Daughter of Mine Owner, Long His Fiancee, Becomes His Bride.

MELBOURNE, March 31.—Dr. Douglas Mawson, the Antarctic explorer, who recently returned from a trip in which his two companions lost their lives and he made his way back to the base after 30 days of suffering in blizzards, has just been married to Miss Delprat, daughter of a mine owner.

The couple became engaged in 1911, when Miss Delprat was 19 years old, and before Dr. Mawson started on the last expedition. They exchanged love messages by wireless while the doctor was in the Antarctic.

The South Pole was not Dr. Mawson's goal. He aimed at the exploration of the vast coast line of the American continent, which was discovered by the American, Capt. Wilkes, 70 years ago, and named after him. The party returned to Adelaide, Australia, on Feb. 27 of this year. The scientific results of the expedition were said to have been very valuable.

Besides mapping out newly discovered land, extraordinary marine fauna were discovered at a depth of two miles and copper deposits and a vast coal bed were also found.

Dr. Mawson was born at Bradford, England, in 1862. He holds the position of lecturer in geology in the University of Adelaide.

RESERVE BANK SELECTION IS EXPECTED TOMORROW

Committee Said to Have Completed List of Cities and Determined on Districts.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—After three months of consideration, the Reserve Bank Organization Committee, Secretaries McAdoo and Houston and Controller of the Currency Williams, charged with laying the groundwork for the new currency system, is about ready to define geographically the limits of the Federal reserve districts, and name the cities in each district where reserve banks are to be located. It is believed that the announcement will be made tomorrow.

It is the general opinion there will be at least four banks on the Atlantic seaboard. In this section, Boston, New York and Philadelphia have been named many times, and Richmond and Atlanta, Baltimore and Washington have been put down on many of the unofficial lists.

Between the Allegheny Mountains and the Rockies the prospects are not so definite, but many of them agree that Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are practically certain to be chosen, and many of them add Minneapolis, Cincinnati and New Orleans or Dallas, Tex.

UNITED GETS NEW RABBI

Massachusetts Tango Bill Defeated. BOSTON, Mass., March 31.—The House of Representatives yesterday refused to place a ban on the tango. A bill which would make dancers of the tango, or so-called animal dances, liable to arrest, fine and imprisonment was overwhelmingly defeated.

HUNTER EARNS $27,000 IN WOODS IN WINTER

SPOKANE, Wash., March 31.—More than $27,000 as reward for a winter spent in hunting and prospecting is the record made by D. J. Matevick, who came to Spokane this week to sell furs caught in the Clearwater district of Idaho.

Matevick went into the district last September and spent the fall in prospecting of creek bottom which had been pecting. In October he came across a sweep clean by a cloudburst, leaving the crevices open. After a few pans he realized that he had made a big find, as every pan was showing strong color and running between 10 and 50 cents in gold.

He located his claims Nov. 10 and prospecting as much as possible before snow fell. He says his washings averaged 25 cents a pan. Matevick has been offered $25,000 for his mining claim.

After winter set in he hunted furs and he brought to Spokane a pack worth $2000, one of the furs being a silver fox valued at approximately $700.

The easy way or the hard way---which? The hard way means long hours standing

Anty Drudge Helps Another Over-worked Woman

Mrs. Muchwork—"Well, I give up! I can't stand on my feet another minute. I am nearly dead now and not half my work done yet."

Anty Drudge—"Of course you are nearly dead, doing your work the way you do it. It would kill anybody. Here, Mary, run to the store and get me a cake of Fels-Naptha Soap, and I'll finish your mother's work in a jiffy and show her how to do things the easy way."

on your feet, doing the hundred and one things that housewives have to do every day in the year. It means hot fires, overheated kitchens, scrubbing, rubbing, scouring. On washdays it means steaming boilers full of clothes and hours spent bending over washtubs and boiler.

The easy way means to let Fels-Naptha Soap do the hard things for you. It whitens clothes and makes the dirt disappear, without hard rubbing or boiling. It dissolves grease on pots and pans. It cleans paint and woodwork. Use cool or lukewarm water.

Better buy Fels-Naptha by the carton or box.

FOUR MEN ARE HELD AS ROBBERS OF PARIS GRAVES

Said to Have Planned to Loot Tomb of Calmette, Editor of Figaro.

PARIS, March 31.—The long vigil which has been kept nightly since last November by 36 Constables at the Cemetery of Pere la Chaise, in the hope of capturing the despoilers who have committed many depredations, resulted early today in the arrest of four men.

The first arrested had been traced by a Constable to an antiquarian's shop, where he was trying to sell a small and very old statue of the Virgin, which proved to have been stolen from the cemetery. He confessed and said the gang had planned to steal last night from the tomb of Calmette, the editor of solid silver palm deposited by Sarah Figaro, slain by Mrs. Calliaux, the Bernhardt.

In December men violated the grave of Mlle. Lantelme, a famous Paris comedienne, and stripped her body of many jewels, although in their work they missed a necklace of rare gems about the woman's neck.

Mlle. Lantelme's jewels were famous. Most of them were sold by auction after her death. She was the wife of Alfred Charles Edwards, the founder and long the editor of the Paris Matin. It has been ascertained that the gang has tampered with 78 monuments, tombs and graves. The despoilers wore masks. One of them is 14 years old.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR AND ITCHING SCALP—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save your hair! Danderine destroys dandruff and stops falling hair at once—Grows hair and we can prove it.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine now will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health. Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—ADY.

FRENCH SCIENTISTS FEAR LEPROSY MAY BECOME A SCOURGE

Pasteur Institute Doctor Asked to Investigate and Prepare Law to Conquer Disease.

PARIS, March 31.—The Ministry of the Interior occupied with the serious increase of leprosy in France, particularly in Paris, in the last few years, has commissioned Dr. Marchaux of the Pasteur Institute to investigate and report preventive measures for adoption in a bill to go immediately before the Chamber of Deputies.

It is intended in this bill to make leprosy legally "notifiable" and to provide severe penalties for the non-enforcement of the law. It is also proposed in this bill to adopt preventive means against the spreading of the disease, which are unprovided for in the present French law.

Dr. Marchaux, who is an expert in this disease, and whose knowledge has been gained by observation in all parts of the world, says he sees no reason why, under present conditions, leprosy in France should not become the scourge it was 600 or 700 years ago. The law now does not recognize the existence of the disease, there is no provision for the isolation of lepers and no legal "notification" is required.

Scientists state that at least 5 per cent of the Paris sewer rats are leprous, carrying contagion about. A large number of lepers in advanced stages of the disease are known to the authorities. France now has 300 lepers, against 60 a few years ago. Forty cases are in one town, Guingamp, in Brittany, there are 50 in one colony on the Italian frontier and several cases in Marseilles.

DR. MAWSON, THE ANTARCTIC EXPLORER, WEDS

Daughter of Mine Owner, Long His Fiancee, Becomes His Bride.

MELBOURNE, March 31.—Dr. Douglas Mawson, the Antarctic explorer, who recently returned from a trip in which his two companions lost their lives and he made his way back to the base after 30 days of suffering in blizzards, has just been married to Miss Delprat, daughter of a mine owner.

The couple became engaged in 1911, when Miss Delprat was 19 years old, and before Dr. Mawson started on the last expedition. They exchanged love messages by wireless while the doctor was in the Antarctic.

The South Pole was not Dr. Mawson's goal. He aimed at the exploration of the vast coast line of the American continent, which was discovered by the American, Capt. Wilkes, 70 years ago, and named after him. The party returned to Adelaide, Australia, on Feb. 27 of this year. The scientific results of the expedition were said to have been very valuable.

Besides mapping out newly discovered land, extraordinary marine fauna were discovered at a depth of two miles and copper deposits and a vast coal bed were also found.

Dr. Mawson was born at Bradford, England, in 1862. He holds the position of lecturer in geology in the University of Adelaide.

RESERVE BANK SELECTION IS EXPECTED TOMORROW

Committee Said to Have Completed List of Cities and Determined on Districts.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—After three months of consideration, the Reserve Bank Organization Committee, Secretaries McAdoo and Houston and Controller of the Currency Williams, charged with laying the groundwork for the new currency system, is about ready to define geographically the limits of the Federal reserve districts, and name the cities in each district where reserve banks are to be located. It is believed that the announcement will be made tomorrow.

It is the general opinion there will be at least four banks on the Atlantic seaboard. In this section, Boston, New York and Philadelphia have been named many times, and Richmond and Atlanta, Baltimore and Washington have been put down on many of the unofficial lists.

Between the Allegheny Mountains and the Rockies the prospects are not so definite, but many of them agree that Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are practically certain to be chosen, and many of them add Minneapolis, Cincinnati and New Orleans or Dallas, Tex.

KOETTERS GUILTY OF KILLING WIDOW; GETS A LIFE TERM

Jury Fixes Sentence for Man It Convicted of Slaying Mrs. Emma Kraft With Hammer.

CRIME IN CHICAGO HOTEL

Defense, in Trial, Tried to Establish an Alibi for the Murdered Woman.

CHICAGO, March 31.—John B. Koettters was found guilty of murdering Mrs. Emma Kraft of Cincinnati, and his punishment fixed at life imprisonment in a verdict rendered by a jury here today. The case went to the jury yesterday.

Koettters was found guilty of killing Mrs. Kraft in a hotel here by a blow from a hammer, which crushed her skull. The crime was committed Nov. 14, 1912.

Mrs. Kraft was 40 years old and had been a widow four years. She had been infatuated with Koettters, who is 35 years old, and had just sold her property in Cincinnati for $3000. The State alleged that Koettters, failing to get this sum from her by cajolery, murdered her and fled with it.

Evidence was introduced that Koettters previously had obtained $800 from Mrs. Kraft and he acknowledged that he had done so and kept the money.

Mrs. Kraft was found at the point of death, her head crushed from a powerful blow with a machinist's hammer, in a hotel room here.

Suspicion pointed to Koettters, but a nationwide search for the man was fruitless, until he was accidentally recognized in San Francisco. When arrested he had $20 in one pocket and $800 concealed in his shoe.

A singular feature of the defense was an attempt to establish an alibi for the slain woman instead of for the murderer. Evidence was offered to prove that Mrs. Kraft could not have been in the Chicago hotel at the time she was said by the State's witnesses to have arrived there.

Accounts from the jury room were that the jurors agreed at once on Koettters' guilt and debated only on the punishment to be inflicted.

CONTRACT OF 18,000 MINERS EXPIRES TODAY

Decision Tonight Whether Indiana Men Will Remain at Work Until New One Is Made.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 31.—Whether the 18,000 miners in the Indiana bituminous field will continue at work pending the drawing up of a new contract to take the place of the one which expires at midnight tonight, or whether the mines will be closed, will be decided at a meeting of the operators' association here tonight.

A proposition drawn up by the Mine Workers' Policy Committee in Chicago last week will be submitted to the operators for ratification.

This proposition stipulates that the mines shall not suspend pending the drawing up of a new contract and takes the matter of agreement out of the hands of the Interstate Joint Conference and places it in the hands of the various districts.

Illinois Miners to Work During Fixing of Wage Scale.

PEORIA, Ill., March 31.—The Illinois miners will remain at work until a new scale of wages is fixed or until the referendum vote of the union accepts or rejects the policy outlined by the Policy Committee of the national organization.

This was decided at the meeting of the Illinois District United Mine Workers of America at Peoria yesterday.

MAN REPORTED KILLED IN WAR IN 1877 FINDS WIFE

Capt. Albert Wellman Who Fought Under Turkish Flag Renowned With Family.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Capt. Albert Wellman, who fought under Osman Pasha in the Turkish-Russian war and was counted among the dead at the battle of Euphrates in 1877, has been reunited to his wife, who had left their home in Cairo for England and eventually for this country after receiving the news that her husband had been killed.

Capt. Wellman was among the prisoners taken by the Russians. When he was released from prison in Russia he could find no trace of his wife and son. He came to America and settled in Montreal, where he built up a large manufacturing business.

Recently he received word from Mrs. Wellman's relatives that she was living in Brooklyn. Capt. and Mrs. Wellman have gone to Boston, where their son resides.

Said to Have Confessed Murder.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., March 31.—A dispatch from Mattson, Ill., yesterday said, Horace Condon, an Iowa (Mich.) prison convict, arrested for breaking his parole, had confessed to the murder, 15 years ago, of William Hawken of Michigan City, Ind. George Traubner of Benton Harbor was sentenced to the Jackson prison for life for the murder of Hawken.

PRESIDENT AIDS MISS TYLER IN FIGHT FOR JOB

Requests Burleson to Restore Her as Postmistress if Way Can Be Found.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Miss Mattie Tyler, granddaughter of President Tyler, and who, at the instance of Congressman Holland and others, was ousted as Postmaster at Courtland, Va., may get her job back. Miss Tyler called on President Wilson yesterday, and told him the office was her means of support. The salary is $700 a year.

The President said if there was any way of vacating the commission given to her successor, B. A. Williams, he would reappoint her. Postmaster-General Burleson will be instructed to ascertain what he can do.

"I thank the newspapers for their kindness to me," said Miss Tyler, after her interview with the President. "I was afraid of them when I came here, but they have done much to enable me to obtain justice."

GEMS, GUARDED BY IDOL, TAKEN FROM SECRET SAFE

Sacred Pearls and Oriental Money Disappear; Chicago Detectives Baffled by Mystery.

CHICAGO, March 31.—Private detectives vainly attempted to clear what they have termed "the grinning idol jewel mystery," the disappearance of a box of pearls and a rare collection of Japanese and Chinese coins, valued at $15,000, from the home of J. G. Dunn, in Evanston.

The jewels and money were in a safe hidden behind a secret panel, which was guarded by a grinning yellow idol known as "Daiakoku," the god of fortune.

"Only my wife and I knew the secret of the idol, we thought," said Dunn. "She is on her way home from Japan. Mrs. Dunn bought most of the larger pearls and the idol from a priest at a temple in the interior of Japan."

That the pearls may now be in the possession of someone sent to recover the sacred jewels of the pagoda is one theory advanced.

Famous French Explorer Dies.

BORDEAUX, France, March 31.—Emile Gentil, former Commissioner-General in the Chari District of the French Congo and well known as an explorer, is dead. He explored a great region of the French Congo and Lake Tchad, and brought a vast area of land under the French protectorate.

CRANBERRY PLANTERS BUY ARKANSAS LAND

It Is Believed Northeast Counties Will Produce Tart Fruit.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 31.—Cranberries are to be grown in Arkansas. A company of Northern capitalists has obtained an option upon a large body of the recently drained lands of Poinsett County in the Lake L'Anguille district.

This land is similar in a great many respects to the cranberry districts of New Jersey, but as the seasons are longer in Arkansas, it is figured that the yield will be greater than in the northern climes.

The acreage to be planted this year will not be great, as it will be in the nature of an experiment, but it is successful planters of Poinsett and adjoining Northeast Arkansas counties will devote thousands of acres to the enterprise.

Cigars and Cigarettes Stolen.

Burglars broke the glass panel in the front door of the Marion Sims Pharmacy, 139 South Grand avenue, Monday night, and stole about 35 worth of cigars and cigarettes.

ROADS TO END TESTIMONY IN FREIGHT RATE CASE

Commerce Commission Grants Request to Expedite Hearing; New Industrial Tariffs Suspended.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—To facilitate consideration of the request for increases in freight rates, Chairman Harlan announced today that the Interstate Commerce Commission had decided to grant the request of the railroads to hear their concluding testimony to day and Thursday.

The request was made by Vice-President Brownell of the Erie, who pointed out that what he declared was the serious financial condition of the carriers warranted them and the commission to expedite the hearings in every way.

All new tariffs filed by railroads eliminating allowances to industrial railroads were suspended today by the Interstate Commerce Commission until July 31, with the exception of those affecting the United States Steel Corporation and other iron and steel companies, which were permitted to stand. Approximately 4000 tariffs were suspended.

Brewery Workers Accept Raise.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Seven unions of brewery workers, bottlers, drivers and helpers, comprising 3000 men, voted yesterday to accept an offer of the Master Brewers' Association of an advance in wages of $1 a week and a reduction in hours of labor. The agreement is for three years.

WOMAN FINDS $1400 IN GOLD BURIED BY FATHER

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., March 31.—Twenty dollar gold pieces amounting to $1400 were found today by Mrs. William McCorkle of McCool, Ind. They had been buried under a tree across from his home eight years ago by her father, Nathaniel Marshall, a carpenter.

The family dispersed after their home was burned eight years ago, and Marshall went to live with his son in Iowa. Just before Marshall died he told his son of burying the gold, but the young man did not credit the story.

When he met Mrs. McCorkle at a reunion he told of their father's story.

Wanted: For Only $1 to put this beautiful new Hoosier in the homes of a few more lucky St. Louis Women!

Hoosier "White Beauty" advertised in leading magazines

Why Not Decide This Tomorrow—Once for All?

1. Do you want this NEW HOOSIER put into your Home, NOW for only $1.00?
2. Or will you wait and miss the benefits of the liberal HOOSIER PLAN?

No matter what your income—whether your husband makes $500 a year or $5000, this new Hoosier Cabinet can help you so much in your kitchen work that purchasing it now will be a big economy.

It Saves Steps It Saves Time It Saves Health It Saves Money It Saves Good Looks

The end of this great opportunity may come sooner than we expected. Scores have stood in front of our window and admired "White Beauty" shown there. Many have already enrolled on the HOOSIER PLAN, which is as follows:

1. $1 puts the Hoosier you select in your home.
2. $1 weekly quickly pays for it.
3. The low Cash Price fixed by the factory prevails strictly.

4. The sale is under the direct supervision of the Hoosier Company.
5. No interest, no extra fees.
6. Your money back if you are not delighted with your Hoosier.

THE NEW HOOSIER CABINET at the present low cash price; on this plan, is a wonderful value. This great offer naturally must be limited to a few cabinets. When these are taken the sale closes. You will then have to pay regular terms as for all other furniture. Your problem is simply this: Tomorrow you can examine at your leisure "White Beauty" and the other Hoosiers with "Oak" inside. You do not obligate yourself in any way. You can then decide at once and use your Hoosier tomorrow or later, as you choose. Will you grasp the opportunity and come tomorrow? Or will you delay and risk coming too late?

Did You Read This Yesterday?

We described these six conveniences that have made 700,000 women use the

HOOSIER

1. The Housekeeper's Food Guide.
2. The Cook Book Holder.
3. The Metal 50-lb. Flour Bin.
4. The Wonderful Shaker Sifter.
5. The Metal Linen Drawer.
6. The Emergency Shelf.

There are forty special conveniences in the new Hoosier—many of them labeled. Note the following:

- (7) The new bill file is a complete book-keeping system for most homes. It holds. Most women dislike to take with salt ing, but this simple book file, one table-spoon and grocery bills on the up, one table-spoon and door shows exactly which bill is left out and can keep a complete, simple record of all your money transactions.
- (8) The "Money tray" on the upper right door is divided into three compartments. One is labeled "change," one "milk tickets," one "miscellaneous." You can keep all your milk or bread checks here and the small change you need for daily bills. This will save you many trips for your pocketbook.
- Have you heard about the Experimental Room in the Hoosier factory where every Modern Kitchen Improvement is tested? Do you know that every one that passes the test is built into the Hoosier?
- (9) Eight crystal glass spice jars with air-tight screw lids are a part of the regular Hoosier equipment. Notice their wide mouths, especially made to admit a spoon. Four have patented sifter tops that are air-tight except when in use. Notice particularly that they are located at the very finger tips of your right hand.
- (10) A new condiment cupboard, specially fitted in above the flour bin, holds twelve bottles of ketchup, vinegar, salad dressing, etc., which can be so placed that you need not move one to get the other.

See Our Window

- (11) The table top of an improved sanitary metal slides out 18 inches beyond the base, so you can sit down at work. It locks automatically so you cannot drop it on your toes. There is not a corner anywhere that is not easy to keep clean. Most important of all, we guarantee this table will never warp.
- (12) The big pocket for the lids and pans on the lower cupboard door is ready whenever you need it. You can get the pan or lid you need without stooping.

NOW DON'T WAIT TOO LONG. Remember, the chances are you need this new Hoosier in your kitchen. Its tested conveniences are a remarkable help in almost every kitchen. To decide fairly whether or not you do need it, you should examine it personally tomorrow. For tomorrow may be your last chance to have one of these New Hoosiers delivered on the Hoosier plan.

A. A. U.'S ABSOLUTE RULINGS AROUSE DISSATISFACTION

Amateurs Have No Voice in Devising the Rules Which Govern Them.

By Robert Edgren,

A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Dissatisfaction with the A. A. U. as at present conducted is spreading to all classes of athletes. The recent disqualification of amateur swimmers in the New York Athletic Club because they competed against amateurs in the Naval Academy at Annapolis (where the United States Government does not allow its midshipmen to be registered and "controlled" by the A. A. U.) is likely to lead to serious consequences.

The powers in control of A. A. U. matters have a firm grip on amateur sport, and it will be a long time before they will be at all surprised if open opposition develops within a week. It is a generally held opinion among amateur athletes that the A. A. U. has gone far from its original purpose. It is no longer an association of active American athletes. Rather, it has become a clique-controlled organization for the handling of American amateur athletic sports for various purposes. The committee of the A. A. U. is known to be in the hands of a few men, many of whom never were athletes, are in power.

The athletes who are so fortunate as to be under intercollegiate association have a different life. These athletes are known as "MAJOR REPRESENTATION." Pure amateurism is a thing of the past. Intercollegiate Union has no such rules as that which barred the A. A. U. from the A. A. U. Interference of control, the lack of control, was in the case of McAlennan, the A. A. U. swimmer, who was suspended with the others by the A. A. U. after the Annapolis trip. McAlennan's suspension was unquestioned.

Tennis players representing the cream of seven nations will contest in the 1914 Davis Cup matches to be held in this country and abroad, and definite arrangements are now under way to make this the best season ever experienced in international competition.

England, Australia, Germany, Canada, France, Belgium and the United States will be represented in this year's Davis Cup matches, the first six being the challenging nations.

It is generally thought that Australia will be the challenger for the cup when the final round is reached, but there may be a few surprises in store. Canada drew Australia in the preliminary tie, but the Northern players are not discouraged and they look forward to the match with pleasure. Canada disposed of both Belgium and South Africa last year and lost the matches with the United States.

While the members of the various Davis Cup teams will not be known definitely for some time to come, as captains are not yet named, it is generally expected that the four players to be used until 21 days before the date of the contest will be generally known just who the Davis Cup contenders will be and the teams will be made up. As the first ties are not played until late in July, it would be early in the month before the final announcement of the teams would be made.

Join with other famous Americans in Praising Tuxedo Tobacco

OUR world-famous athletes—the men who triumphed for America at the Olympic Games in Stockholm—are among the thousands who declare that Tuxedo is not only extremely enjoyable, but beneficial.

Famous Americans in every walk of life—doctors, lawyers, actors, singers, public speakers, statesmen, business leaders—smoke and endorse Tuxedo grew rapidly in public favor without advertising; its natural growth reached the stupendous total of fifty or sixty million packages a year. Not until the past few months has it been possible to keep up with the demand for Tuxedo. Now increased facilities make it possible for every man to smoke this best of tobaccos.

Tuxedo is fine, ripened Burley tobacco of the highest grade—aged until thoroughly mild and mellow. Then treated by the famous "Tuxedo Process," that removes the last trace of "bite" and develops all the delicious Burley fragrance and flavor. Pure, mild, delicious Tuxedo is absolutely non-biting—try it.

"Tuxedo is a strong card with me. I advise all athletes to stick to Tuxedo. It is the one tobacco that will help them, keep them in trim, prevent them from going 'stale'. Tuxedo leads—bar none."

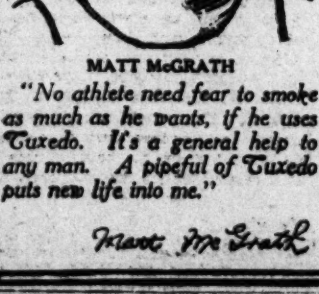

GASTON STROBINO

"Tuxedo is the tobacco for the athlete. It never hurts my nerves, and always steadies my mind. Tuxedo for me."

MATT MCGRATH

"No athlete need fear to smoke as much as he wants, if he uses Tuxedo. It's a general help to any man. A pipeful of Tuxedo puts new life into me."

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

CAUGHT IN INDIANAPOLIS

Alleged St. Louis Bigamist Arrested While Visiting Second Wife.

The St. Louis Police Department was notified by Indianapolis authorities, Monday, that Charles Phelps wanted in St. Louis on a charge of bigamy, had been arrested in Indianapolis.

Phelps was arrested in St. Louis, Nov. 6, 1913, and, owing to stomach trouble, was confined in the city hospital. He escaped the next day and went to Indianapolis, where his second wife, Mrs. Jessie Phelps, to whom he was married on Aug. 13, had been living.

Timothy D. Sullivan, Irish patriot, is dead. Was Author of "God Save Ireland." Served 20 Years in Prison for Treason. House of Commons, DUBLIN, Ireland, March 31.—Timothy D. Sullivan, Irish patriot and author of "God Save Ireland," died here yesterday, aged 87.

Sullivan a journalist by profession was a native of Bantry, County Co. He was one of the most prominent factors in favor of home rule at the time of the Home Rule movement. For 12 years he was a Nationalist member of the House of Commons and for 10 years was Lord Mayor of Dublin.

On one occasion Mr. Sullivan served two months in jail for an offence against the coercion act. He was present on several other occasions but escaped punishment.

A Few of the Many Words of Praise

From Pleased Advertisers

Post-Dispatch, St. Louis, Mo.
I am much pleased with the result of my farm ad. run in your paper, bringing me inquiries by every mail, and if I need any more advertising I certainly will favor your department.

Fayetteville, Ark.
Post-Dispatch:
I am well pleased with the results your paper has brought me. The replies have cost me only 3 cents each.

Post-Dispatch:
I hope you will make a success of the "Farm to Table" department. For myself I am well satisfied with results. I am sure that the other advertisers will be well pleased.

Post-Dispatch:
Did not key ads. However, we intend to do so. Plants and Trees? I am sure that the other advertisers will be well pleased.

Post-Dispatch:
Kindly discontinue my ad in the Room and Board Columns. Your ad has filled up the house to overflowing and I am turning away people.

Post-Dispatch:
To receive replies of the 2nd morning's mail. As first replies did not quite satisfy, I let them run on and on the 3rd morning. I am sure that the other advertisers will be well pleased.

Post-Dispatch:
Business from advertisements in your Seeds, Plants and Trees classified columns was satisfactory.

Post-Dispatch:
During October and November we ran several 4-line ads in the classified columns of the Post-Dispatch, one of which, in the Poultry and Birds section, brought in 152 replies. From our experience of advertising in various papers, we do not consider this remarkable, but nothing short of phenomenal, and surely demonstrates the remarkable pulling power of your classified columns.
